Red Shoes Margaret Atwood Starting Out:

The Red Shoes Rosemary Sullivan, 1998 International award winning and best selling author Canadian cultural icon feminist role model man hater wife mother private citizen and household name who is Margaret Atwood Rosemary Sullivan award winning literary biographer has penned The Red Shoes Margaret Atwood Starting Out the first portrait of Canada's most famous novelist focusing on her childhood and formative years as a writer and the generation she grew up in When Margaret Atwood was a little girl in 1949 she saw a movie called The Red Shoes It is the story of a beautiful young woman who becomes a famous ballerina but commits suicide when she cannot satisfy one man who wants her to devote her entire life to her art and another who loves her but subjugates her to become his muse and inspiration She struggles to choose art but the choice eventually destroys her Margaret Atwood remembers being devastated by this movie but unlike many young girls of her time she escaped its underlying message Always sustained by a strong sense of self Atwood would achieve a meteoric literary career Yet a nurturing sense of self confidence is just one fascinating side of our most famous literary figure as examined in Rosemary Sullivan's latest biography The Red Shoes is not a simple biography but a portrait of a complex intriguing woman and her generation The seventies in Canada was the decade of fierce nationalist debate a period during which Canada's social imagination was creating a new tradition Suddenly everyone from Robertson Davies to Margaret Laurence was talking and writing about a Canadian cultural identity Margaret Atwood was no exception For despite her tremendous success that transcends the literary community catapulting into the realm of a household name Margaret Atwood has remained very much a private person with a public persona Rosemary Sullivan reveals the discrepancy between Atwood's cool acerbic public image and the down to earth straight dealing and generous woman who actually writes the books Throughout she weaves the issues of female creativity authority and autonomy set against the backdrop of a generation of women coming of age during one of the most radically shifting times in contemporary history The Red Shoes Rosemary Sullivan, 1998 Margaret Atwood Reingard M. Nischik, 2000 Novelist poet cultural critic Margaret Atwood is one of the most fascinating versatile and productive authors of our time a superb writer in any genre she chooses to tackle This book was prepared on the occasion of Atwood's sixtieth birthday in November 1999 Its first aim is therefore to take stock of Atwood's multifarious works and international impact at the height of her creative powers Secondly the book serves as a wide ranging introduction to the writer and her works Fifteen informative articles written specifically for this volume by Atwood specialists from Canada the USA the UK Germany and France treat her life and status her works up to date survey articles on Atwood's novels short fiction poetry and literary and cultural criticism and important approaches to her works from the standpoints of gender politics mythology ecology popular culture constructivism and Canadian nationalism A final section on creativity transmission and reception includes an interview with Atwood on creativity statements by some of Atwood's important transmitters including publishers editors literary agents and translators and some 15 statements by Atwood's fellow writers in which they explore her importance for them. A number of photographs of Atwood, several cartoons drawn by her, an up-to-date bibliography of works by and about Atwood, and an index round out the volume. Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American literature at the University of Konstanz, Germany. The Cambridge Introduction to Margaret Atwood Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson, 2010-09-02 Margaret Atwood offers an immensely influential voice in contemporary literature. Her novels have been translated into over 22 languages and are widely studied, taught, and enjoyed. Her style is defined by her comic wit and willingness to experiment. Her work has ranged across several genres from poetry to literary and cultural criticism, novels, short stories, and art. This Introduction summarizes Atwood's canon from her earliest poetry and her first novel The Edible Woman through The Handmaid's Tale to The Year of the Flood. Covering the full range of her work, it guides students through multiple readings of her oeuvre. It features chapters on her life and career, her literary, Canadian, and feminist contexts, and how her work has been received and debated over the course of her career. With a guide to further reading and a clear, well-organised structure, this book presents an engaging overview for students and readers.

The Red Shoes Rosemary Sullivan, 2012-07-03 International award-winning and best-selling author, Canadian cultural icon, feminist role model, man-hater, wife, mother, private citizen, and household name: who is Margaret Atwood? Rosemary Sullivan, award-winning literary biographer, has penned The Red Shoes: Margaret Atwood Starting Out, the first portrait of Canada's most famous novelist focusing on her childhood and formative years as a writer and the generation she grew up in. When Margaret Atwood was a little girl in 1949, she saw a movie called The Red Shoes. It is the story of a beautiful young woman who becomes a famous ballerina but commits suicide when she cannot satisfy one man who wants her to devote her entire life to her art, and another who loves her but subjugates her to become his muse and inspiration. She struggles to choose art, but the choice eventually destroys her. Margaret Atwood remembers being devastated by this movie, but unlike many young girls of her time, she escaped its underlying message. Always sustained by a strong sense of self, Atwood would achieve a meteoric literary career. Yet a nurturing sense of self-confidence is just one fascinating side of our most famous literary figure, as examined in Rosemary Sullivan's latest biography. The Red Shoes is not a simple biography but a portrait of a complex, intriguing woman and her generation. The seventies in Canada was the decade of fierce nationalist debate, a period during which Canada's social imagination was creating a new tradition. Suddenly, everyone from Robertson Davies to Margaret Laurence was talking and writing about a Canadian cultural identity. Margaret Atwood was no exception. For despite her tremendous success that transcends the literary community, catapulting into the realm of a household name, Margaret Atwood has remained very much a private person with a public persona. Rosemary Sullivan reveals the discrepancy between Atwood's cool, acerbic public image and the down-to-earth, straight-dealing and generous woman who actually writes the books. Throughout, she weaves the issues of female creativity, authority, and autonomy set against the backdrop of a generation of women coming of age during one of the most radically shifting times in contemporary history. Margaret Atwood Marion Wynne-Davies,2010 This book offers a comprehensive overview of Margaret Atwood s poetry novels shorter fiction children s books criticism and experimental multi genre work

A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts,2003-02-14 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite. However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring. The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries, a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism. Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced, including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions. Discussion of context, intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period, whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts. The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century.

Feminism and Contemporary Women Writers Radha Chakravarty, 2014-05-30. This book attempts to deal with the problem of literary subjectivity in theory and practice. The works of six contemporary women writers, Doris Lessing, Anita Desai, Mahasweta Devi, Buchi Emecheta, Margaret Atwood and Toni Morrison are discussed as potential ways of testing and expanding the theoretical debate. A brief history of subjectivity and subject formation is reviewed in the light of the works of thinkers such as Hobbes, Hume, Kant, Hegel, Marx, Nietzsche, Raymond Williams and Stephen Greenblatt, and the work of leading feminists is also seen contributing to the debate substantially.
