Miami Virtue Gregory L. Ulmer, Barbara Jo Revelle, John Craig Freeman, William L. Tilson, 2022-11-28 The Florida Research Ensemble Ulmer Revelle Freeman and Tilson is an interdisciplinary collaborative arts and research group developing choragraphy a method of inquiry which applies modernist arts practices and poststructural theory to the design and testing of image as category The authors argue that image categories function for networked digital media the way Aristotle's word categories functioned for literate concepts Chora was retrieved for contemporary philosophy by Jacques Derrida in the context of his deconstruction of Western metaphysics Grounded in grammatology the history and theory of writing Derrida s critique of Being and Becoming as primary concepts of reality is that the category or classification system invented within literacy is not adequate for the apparatus of electracy that has developed since the industrial revolution The FRE project in Miami designed and tested a prototype for a choral category capable of coordinating real places cultural collective information digital technologies and personal experience Miami Virtue tested choragraphy as a method for adopting a particular region the Miami River including primary discourses organizing its lifeworld and articulating it as a category of thought The designed and recorded virtual site functions for electracy the way concepts function for literacy as a navigable set supporting holistic intelligence and public discourse
