Professional Writing And Rhetoric Readings From The Field:

Professional Writing and Rhetoric Tim Peeples, 2003 Professional Writing and Rhetoric is a disciplinary reader that introduces students to professional writing by inviting them into conversations about the field by people in the field. Intended for undergraduates and entry level masters students who are majoring, minoring or getting certificates in professional writing studies, Professional Writing and Rhetoric is an edited reader that makes the field's theoretical discussions accessible to these students. Addressing a growing need as the field expands up from service oriented courses and down from advanced graduate programs, it fills an important gap in the books currently available within professional writing studies. This text guides students into the discussions that continue to form this relatively young field by 1 organizing readings rhetorically 2 including several readings that are regularly cited in the field's literatures 3 selecting readings that are accessible to students and 4 offering pedagogical devices that aid comprehension and encourage critical reflection. The aim is not to present a greatest hits of the field nor to direct students' thinking and practice toward the hottest new theories nor to challenge the thinking of those already comfortable in the field. Instead, older and newer selections are intermixed within a rhetorical framework to encourage students to make connections across readings, promote reflective rhetorical practice, stimulate discussion and encourage students to become co-inquirers within the discipline. Public and Professional Writing

A. Surma, 2005-02-09 This book offers something quite new: an advanced textbook that considers professional writing as a negotiated process between writer and reader. Arguing that ethics, imagination and rhetoric are integral to professional writing praxis, the book encourages students to look critically at various writing practices in a range of contexts. A textbook for advanced undergraduates and postgraduates in Linguistics, Communication, Journalism and Media Studies.

Professional Writing Sky Marsen, 2019-11-06 Now in its fourth edition, this is a comprehensive yet concise introduction to professional writing for different media which synthesises methods and ideas developed in journalism, public relations, management and marketing. Based on research in the field, it equips students with the ability to convey their ideas in a wealth of print and digital formats in a variety of professional contexts internationally. It begins by examining the different aspects of the writing process before showing students how to adjust their style, tone and approach for different documents, including short memos, feature articles, press releases and reports. This new edition will continue to be an essential companion for undergraduates on professional writing and business communication modules. It will also be a valuable source of guidance for new professionals and entrepreneurs needing to get to grips with writing formal written documents. New to this Edition: Fully revised throughout with coverage of a wider variety of journalistic writing. New content on mission and vision statements, annual reports and newsletters alongside an overview of how organisations use social media and respond to crises. Includes more analysed examples of business documents. Best of the Independent Journals in Rhetoric and Composition 2013
