Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,1890 Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,1899

Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,2015-06-15 Excerpt from Recollections of an Old Musician Retrospection is the inheritance of mature age We all love to recall the scenes of the past and the companions of our pleasures or sorrows I often order memory to unroll slowly before my mental vision the panorama of my past life Upon some of the scenes I look with a strong desire to chain the wheels that move them from view but with others those wheels cannot turn too quickly The first picture I call up stands out clearly defined I see myself as a boy again landing on America s shore with the pleasures of hope shining in my eyes for a good fairy has touched the new land with her magic wand and every object I look upon is strangely beautiful The same good fairy leads me up State Street and Court Street in Boston and wandering aimlessly and boylike I follow up the hill into Pemberton Square I stand there and look round at the solid comfortable stately mansions of old Boston s aristocracy and possibly I feel my own insignificance About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works RECOLLECTIONS OF AN

Autobiographies Case Library (Cleveland, Ohio),1910 Michael Costa: England's First Conductor John Goulden,2016-04-22 Among the major changes that swept through the music industry during the mid nineteenth century one that has received little attention is how musical performances were managed and directed Yet this was arguably the most radical change of all from a loose control shared between the violin leader musical director and maestro al cembalo to a system of tight and unified control under a professional conductor manager This process brought with it not only baton conducting in its modern form but also higher standards of training and discipline a new orchestral lay out and a more focused rehearsal regime The resulting rise in standards of performance was arguably the greatest achievement of English music in the otherwise rather barren mid Victorian period The key figure in this process was Michael Costa who built for himself unprecedented contractual powers and used his awesome personal authority to impose reform on the three main institutions of mid Victorian music the opera houses the Philharmonic and the Sacred Harmonic Society He was a central figure in the battles between the two rival opera houses between the Philharmonic and the New Philharmonic and between the venerable Ancient Concerts and the mass festival events of the Sacred Harmonic Society Costa's uniquely powerful position in the operatic symphonic and choral world and the rapidity with which he was forgotten after his death provide a fascinating insight into the politics and changing aesthetics of the Victorian musical world Literary News ,1899
