Photographing Crime Scenes in Twentieth-Century London Alexa Neale,2020-09-03 How can we read crime scenes through photography Making use of micro histories of domestic murder and crime scene photographs made available for the first time Alexa Neale provides a highly original exploration of what crime scenes can tell us about the significance of expectations of domesticity class gender race privacy and relationships in twentieth century Britain With 10 case studies and 30 black and white images Photographing Crime Scenes in 20th Century London will take you inside the homes that were murder crime scenes to read their geographical and symbolic meanings in the light of the development of crime scene photography forensic analysis and psychological testing In doing so it reveals how photographs of domestic objects and spaces were often used to recreate a narrative for the murder based on the defendant s perceived identity rather than to prove if they committed the crime at all Bringing the history of crime British social and cultural history and the history of forensic photography to the analysis of the crime scene this study offers fascinating details on the changing public and private lives of Londoners in the 20th century The Red Barn Robert Huish,1828 The Red Barn William Maginn,1831

The Bebop Scene in London's Soho, 1945-1950 Ray Kinsella,2022-11-23 This is the first book to tell the story of the bebop subculture in London s Soho a subculture that emerged in 1945 and reached its pinnacle in 1950 In an exploration via the intersections of race class and gender it shows how bebop identities were constructed and articulated Combining a wide range of archival research and theory the book evocatively demonstrates how the scene evolved in Soho s clubs the fashion that formed around the music drug usage amongst a contingent of the group and the moral panic which led to the police raids on the clubs between 1947 and 1950 Thereafter it maps the changes in popular culture in Soho during the 1950s and argues that the bebop story is an important precedent to the institutional harassment of black related spaces and culture that continued in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book therefore rewrites the first chapter of the classic subcultural canon and resets the subcultural clock requiring us to rethink the periodization and social make up of British post war youth subcultures Crime Scene Witness Dana R. Street Ballads in Nineteenth-Century Britain, Ireland, and North America David Atkinson,Steve Roud,2016-04-01 In recent years the assumption that traditional songs originated from a primarily oral tradition has been challenged by research into street literature that is the cheap printed broadsides and chapbooks that poured from the presses of jobbing printers from the late sixteenth century until the beginning of the twentieth Not only are some traditional singers known to have learned songs from printed sources but most of the songs were composed by professional writers and reached the populace in printed form Street Ballads in Nineteenth Century Britain Ireland and North America engages with the long running debate over the origin of traditional songs by examining street literature s interaction with and influence on oral traditions
