The Red Shoes and Other Tattered Tales Karen Elizabeth Gordon, 1996 Best known for her Gothic language handbooks reissued recently as The New Well Tempered Sentence and The Deluxe Transitive Vampire Karen Elizabeth Gordon here turns her extraordinary talents to fiction and the result is as unconventional as her seductive grammar dramas The Red Shoes consists of tatters of a half dozen tales The Glass Shoe The Gingerbread Variations The Little Match Girl Don Juan Is a Woman and the title story among others sewn together into a novel by two seamstresses Fabric fabrication such is the stuff of these lost chronicles come together here Gordon writes in her introduction Swinging their hatboxes swaying their hips chapters with torn slips wander in on high heels and blistered feet Looking back to the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen and the Brothers Grimm but also casting sidelong glances at metafictional sugardaddies like Queneau Nabokov Cortazar Gass and Milorad Pavic The Red Shoes is a Rabelaisian romp through the language of sensuality

"Have You Seen . . . ?" David Thomson, 2008-10-14 In 1975 David Thomson published his Biographical Dictionary of Film and few film books have enjoyed better press or such steady sales Now thirty three years later we have the companion volume a second book of more than 1 000 pages in one voice that of our most provocative contemporary film critic and historian Juxtaposing the fanciful and the fabulous the old favorites and the forgotten this sweeping collection presents the films that Thomson offers in response to the question he gets asked most often What should I see This new book is a generous history of film and an enticing critical appraisal written with as much humor and passion as historical knowledge Not content to choose his own top films though they are here Thomson has created a list that will surprise and delight you and send you to your best movie rental service But he also probes the question after one hundred years of film which ones are the best and why Have You Seen suggests a true canon of cinema and one that's almost completely accessible now thanks to DVDs This book is a must for anyone who loves the silver screen the perfect confection to dip into at any point for a taste of controversy little known facts and ideas about what to see This is a volume you'll want to return to again and again like a dear but argumentative friend in the dark at the movies 365 Stories For Girls Om Books Editorial Team, 2018-11 A treasury of stories for young girls this collection is guaranteed to delight and entertain young minds Enjoy reading one story a day and see your favourite fairies princes princesses and knights come alive in the wonderful illustrations A beautiful hardback book worth keeping in your library

Feet and Footwear Margo DeMello, 2009-09-10 COSTUME CLOTHES FASHION This one of a kind A to Z reference work contains over 150 fascinating entries and intriguing sidebars that look at feet and adornment of feet across the many cultures of the world throughout time A wide range of international and multicultural topics are covered including footbinding fetishes diseases customs and beliefs shoe construction myths and folktales the history of footwear iconic brands and types of shoes removing shoes upon entering a house covering feet up for social customs and the types of footwear worn around the world The Politics of the Essay Ruth-Ellen B. Joeres, Elizabeth Mittman, 1993 The Politics of the Essay is that rare scholarly work that provides both a history of this relatively new field and of its formal characteristics and inspires its readers to want to participate in the making of this history Signs The first in depth study of the relationship between women and essays Employing gender race class and national identity as axes of analysis this volume introduces new perspectives into what has been a largely apolitical discussion of the essay Includes an original essay by Susan Griffin Color It True

Murray Pomerance, 2021-12-16 This often startlingly original book introduces a new way of thinking about color in film as distinct from existing approaches which tend to emphasize either technical processes and or histories of film coloration or the meanings of color as metaphor or symbol or else part of a broader signifying system Murray Pomerance's latest meditation on cinema has the author embed himself in various ways of thinking about color not ways of framing it as a production trick or a symbolic language but ways of wondering how the color effect onscreen can work in the act of viewing Pomerance examines many issues including acuity dreaming interrelationships saturations color contrasts color and performance color as a performance aid or even performance substitute and more The lavender of the photographer's seamless in Antonioni's Blow Up taken in itself as an explosion of color worked into form and then considered both as part of the story and part of our experience The 14 chapters of this book each discuss a single primary color as regards to our experience of cinema After opening the idea of such an exploration in terms of the history of our apprehension and the variation in our experience that color germinates Color it True takes form
