Women and the Republican Party, 1854-1924 Melanie Gustafson, 2001-10-15 Acclaimed as groundbreaking since its publication Women and the Republican Party 1854 1924 explores the forces that propelled women to partisan activism in an era of widespread disfranchisement and provides a new perspective on how women fashioned their political strategies and identities before and after 1920 Melanie Susan Gustafson examines women's partisan history against the backdrop of women's political culture Contesting the accepted notion that women were uninvolved in political parties before gaining the vote Gustafson reveals the length and depth of women's partisan activism between the founding of the Republican Party whose abolitionist agenda captured the loyalty of many women and the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment Her account also looks at the complex interplay of partisan and nonpartisan activity the fierce debates among women about how to best use their influence the ebb and flow of enthusiasm for women s participation and the third parties that fused the civic world of reform organizations with the electoral world of voting and legislation

The God Impulse Jack Alexander,2018-07-31 For Jesus truth and mercy went hand in hand Where he preached he also healed He didn t outsource one or the other to biblical scholars or nonprofit ministries He presented the truth of the gospel through his words and his actions and he did it all in a hands on relational way And the reaction was the same wherever he went people were amazed Today we seem to have lost this powerful pattern of self giving love focusing on truth at the expense of mercy or on mercy at the expense of truth and often failing to build genuine lasting relationships with the people around us In The God Impulse Jack Alexander helps us recover Jesus s model showing through biblical and modern real life stories that God s first impulse toward us is mercy He then sets forth a pattern for us to follow to see go do and endure that not only spreads truth and love to those around us who are suffering but also causes them to gasp in amazement and consider the claims of the gospel for themselves
