Red Stars Soviet Air Force In World War Two:

Red Stars in the Sky, 1981 Russian Aviation and Air Power in the Twentieth Century John Greenwood, Von Hardesty, Robin Higham, 2014-06-11 In the light of new archival material the editors take a fresh look at Russian aviation in the twentieth century Presenting a comprehensive view of Russian aviation from its genesis in the late czarist period to the present era the approach is essentially chronological with a major emphasis on the evolution of military aviation The contributions are diverse with appropriate attention to civilian and institutional themes International Warbirds John C. Fredriksen, 2001-08-01 In depth descriptions and photographs of the aircraft of 21 nations presented with a unique human dimension that goes behind the machines to the people involved Invaluable for specialists accessible to enthusiasts

International Warbirds An Illustrated Guide to World Military Aircraft 1914 2000 puts the most legendary fighter aircraft of the 20th century developed outside the United States on vivid display It offers 336 illustrated biographies of the most significant warplanes used in squadron service from World War I to the Balkan conflict including numerous models from Great Britain France Russia and Japan as well as notable machines from Israel Canada China India Brazil and other nations Entries span the history and scope of military aircraft from bombers and fighters to transports trainers reconnaissance craft sea planes and helicopters with each capsule history combining nuts and bolts technical data with the story of that model s evolution and use Together these portraits offer an exciting well researched tribute to visionary designers and builders as well as courageous pilots and crews across the globe and tell a vivid tale of how air power became such a decisive factor in modern warfare Soviet Fighters of the Second World War Jason Nicholas Moore, 2021-07-30 The Red Air Force had just started to re equip with modern monoplane fighters when the Germans opened Operation Barbarossa the invasion of the Soviet Union Hundreds of fighters were destroyed in the first few days but many of these were obsolete biplanes

Soviet Fighters of the Second World War details fighter development from the dark days of Barbarossa to eventual triumph over Berlin Starting with outdated aircraft such as the Polikarpov Po 2 biplane and monoplane fighters the Soviets then settled on two main lines of development the inline engine LaGG 3 and its radial engine derivatives the La 5 and La 7 and the inline engine Yakovlev fighters which were produced in greater numbers than any other series of fighters Not only are these aircraft accurately described but experimental fighters are also dealt with In addition colour profiles illustrate these aircraft in terms of design camouflage and markings From the I 15bis biplane of the late 1930s to the superb La 7 and Yak 3 fighters of the last year of the war all Red Air Force fighters are covered in this comprehensive volume Soviet Air Force Fighter Colours 1941-1945 Erik Pilawskii, 2003 This book represents probably the most detailed study published in the English language of the camouflage and markings of the fighter aircraft of the Soviet Air Force during World War II Erik Pilawskii is a scholar of the Soviet Air Force in World War II and has undertaken several years of research to produce this ground breaking book With information drawn from previously inaccessible Soviet archives the author first presents a detailed analysis of the developments trends patterns and irregularities of the color systems seen on Russian fighters and offers a fascinating insight into the workings of the Soviet manufacturing system responsible for this task He then brings readers a technical study of each of the main fighter aircraft and variants and each description is followed by coverage of camouflage and markings factory applied field variations and seasonal The text is supported by hundreds of rare and previously unpublished photographs and more than 40 commissioned full color artworks Furthermore hundreds of color illustrations portray the immense variety of patterns related to this fascinating subject This book will be a must have for all students of Soviet air power and Russian aircraft modelers Soviet Aces of World War 2 Hugh Morgan,2013-01-20 At the time of publication no single volume in English had ever appeared in the West dealing with this intriguing subject area Once restrictions relaxed in the former Soviet Union the records of their elite pilots deeds detailed in this book came to light Although initially equipped with very poor aircraft and robbed of effective leadership thanks as much to Stalin s purges in the late 1930s as to the efforts of the Luftwaffe Soviet fighter pilots soon turned the tables through the use of both lend lease aircraft like the Hurricane Spitfire P 39 and P 40 and home grown machines like the MiG 3 LaGG 3 5 Lavochkin La 5 7 9 and the Yak 1 3 Red Star Against The Swastika Vasily Emelianenko,2005-12-01 This is the extraordinary story of Vasily B Emelianenko the veteran pilot of one of the Soviet Union s most contradictory planes of WWII the I1 2 This heavily armoured aircraft was practically unrivalled in terms of fire power but it was slow to manoeuvre and an easy target for fighters I1 2 had to attack enemy flak columns at extremely low altitudes which led to enormous tolls both in equipment and personnel

Red Star and Roundel Phil Wilkinson, 2019-11-03 The Red Star and the Roundel are the symbols of organisations that share a century of existence a century with a full quota of conflict as well as harmony The Russian red star has maintained its impact in the hundred years since the Revolution The Royal Air Force's red white and blue roundel has seen action in the air world wide for the same period Phil Wilkinson had forty years of Royal Air Force service the final three and a half were in Russia With this unusual double qualification he examines the dynamics of the Russia RAF relationship sometimes as allies sometimes as adversaries Drawing on personal reminiscences and on the recollections of surviving veterans of RAF service in Russia during the Second World War as well as on official records from throughout this shared century the narrative is sometimes light hearted sometimes sombre It goes from brutal combat in the early years to language difficulties later on from innocent misunderstandings to deliberate deception from cultural contrasts to aesthetic links Perhaps the narrative's most worthwhile effect will be to draw the reader's comment Well I didn't know that before There is still a lot to learn a century's worth
