Thomas Hoepker: the Way It Was Freddy Langer, 2022-06-02 Two road trips one in black and white the other color across two Americas nearly 60 years apart Magnum photographer and former Magnum president Thomas Hoepker born 1936 was 27 years old when he set out on his ambitious journey across the United States one that took him from coast to coast and back again over the course of three months and resulted in thousands of photos The year was 1963 and Hoepker had been commissioned by the German magazine Kristall to discover America through his camera The photo reportages he made published in five issues of the magazine across dozens of pages revealed Hoepker's complex skeptical and sometimes melancholy view of the American everyday in big cities small towns and all in between His was an unromanticized vision in which the decadent existed alongside the desolate the glitter with the grit As much as Hoepker recognized that the problematic American dream could go unfulfilled he was fascinated with the country settling in New York in 1976 and in 2020 at the age of 84 and after a successful career as a photojournalist and president of Magnum Photos he once again set out on a road trip throughout the US The Way It Was Road Trips USA juxtaposes Hoepker's color photographs from this trip with his original black and white images taking us on a journey both through his changing sense of America and through time

Ilf and Petrov's

American Road Trip Илья Ильф, Евгений Петров, 2007 In 1935 well into the era of Soviet communism Russian satirical writers Ilya Ilf and Evgeny Petrov came to the U S as special correspondents for the Russian newspaper Pravda They drove cross country and back on a ten week trip recording images of American life through humorous texts and the lens of a Leica camera When they returned home they published their work in Ogonek the Soviet equivalent of Time magazine and later in the book Odnootazhnaya Amerika Single Storied America This wonderful lost work filled with wry observations biting opinions and telling photographs is now collected in Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip the first English translation From Ilf and Petrov's American Road Trip The word America has well developed grandiose associations for a Soviet person for whom it refers to a country of skyscrapers where day and night one hears the unceasing thunder of surface and underground trains the hellish roar of automobile horns and the continuous despairing screams of stockbrokers rushing through the skyscrapers waving their ever falling shares We want to change that image A Cabinet Book published by Princeton Architectural Press

The American Roadside in Émigré Literature, Film, and Photography Elsa Court, 2020-01-06 The American Roadside in migr Literature Film and Photography 1955 1985 traces the origin of a postmodern iconography of mobile consumption equating roadside America with an authentic experience of the United States through the postwar road narrative a narrative which Elsa Court argues has been shaped by and through white male migr narratives of the American road in both literature and visual culture While stressing that these narratives are limited in their understanding of the processes of exclusion and unequal flux in experiences of modern automobility the book works through four case studies in the American works of European born authors Vladimir Nabokov Robert Frank Alfred Hitchcock and Wim Wenders to unveil an early phenomenology of the postwar American highway one that anticipates the works of late twentieth century spatial theorists Jean Baudrillard Michel Foucault and Marc Aug and sketches a postmodern aesthetic of western mobility and consumption that has become synonymous with contemporary America

Mexico 1953: the Road Trip Roger Hagan, 2005-12 Two young photographers explore Mexico in a Frazer car a half century ago 170 pages 332 photos with extensive captions telling the story Some of the photographs also appear in the author's Mexico 1953 A Book of Photographs Photography and Collaboration Daniel Palmer, 2020-09-14

Photography and Collaboration offers a fresh perspective on existing debates in art photography and on the act of photography in general. Unlike conventional accounts that celebrate individual photographers and their personal visions, this book investigates the idea that authorship in photography is often more complex and multiple than we imagine, involving not only various forms of partnership between photographers but also an astonishing array of relationships with photographed subjects and viewers. Thematic chapters explore the increasing prevalence of collaborative approaches to photography among a broad range of international artists from conceptual practices in the 1960s to the most recent digital manifestations. Positioning contemporary work in a broader historical and theoretical context, the book reveals that collaboration is an overlooked but essential dimension of the medium's development and potential.

A Photographer's Journey By Boswell Boswell, 2023-03-09

Who is Boswell? Boswell is the pseudonym for an award-winning freelance photographer with engaging and sometimes controversial stories to tell. You've likely seen his photos in national and international magazines, books, and travel brochures. This ebook will describe how an inspiration during his early years in a tiny rural Midwestern town led to a life spent traveling in 130 countries on all seven continents and how a successful business was built by producing a prolific number of marketable photos as a professional stock and assignment photographer. Filled with entertaining anecdotes and accompanied by 99 photos, Boswell's journey takes readers inside some of the most colorful aspects of editorial and corporate photography. Landing and executing magazine assignments, gaining special access, required entrance to exclusive corridors of privilege, seeking serendipity in the world's streets and cruising the world's seas and oceans, as well as uncovering some dark sides of the industry. Just a few stories include: Waiting for Mandela, chasing Doctor Death, repatriating skyjackers from Cuba, attending Zimbabwe's first session of parliament, surviving the Drake Passage, standing on stage with the Lord of the Dance, roving the pits with famous race drivers, hanging with a Piston Bad Boy, chumming with Sparky in the Tigers locker room, and being interviewed by oral historian Studs Terkel while taking his portrait. One of the first Americans to visit Mao's China during the Cultural Revolution, Boswell returned over fifty times to produce books on China, including a very large one stolen by the French. Several chapters of his unlikely story are devoted to travels in China, how specializing in that country proved a key to his photographic success, and why he fell in love in a rice paddy.
