Cinema and the Algerian War of Independence Ahmed Bedjaoui, 2020-03-25 The book examines the war of images between France and Algeria Discussing the role of the United States during the war it covers topics such the presence of American reporters in Algeria John F Kennedy's support for Algerian independence while a senator the broadcasting of documentaries on the Algerian war on public television and reporting in the press Even half a century after Algerian independence there remains a need for both film and literature on the war from both sides of the Mediterranean This might seem surprising particularly to media professionals given the quantity of output on the subject but both French and Algerian portrayals of the war remain flawed and shackled to their respective ideologies The generation of FLN leaders recognized early on the importance of images and established a clandestine film structure that would bring the Algerian cause to the world stage The book offers an insightful and timely contribution not just to the field of North African

Who Cleans the Park? John Krinsky, Maud Simonet, 2017-03-24 America's public parks are in a golden age Hundreds of millions of dollars both public and private fund urban jewels like Manhattan's Central Park Keeping the polish on landmark parks and in neighborhood playgrounds alike means that the trash must be picked up benches painted equipment tested and leaves raked Bringing this often invisible work into view however raises profound questions for citizens of cities In Who Cleans the Park John Krinsky and Maud Simonet explain that the work of maintaining parks has intersected with broader trends in welfare reform civic engagement criminal justice and the rise of public-private partnerships Welfare to work trainees volunteers unionized city workers sometimes working outside their official job descriptions staff of nonprofit park conservancies and people sentenced to community service are just a few of the groups who routinely maintain parks With public services no longer being provided primarily by public workers Krinsky and

Simonet argue the nature of public work must be reevaluated Based on four years of fieldwork in New York City Who Cleans the Park looks at the transformation of public parks from the ground up Beginning with studying changes in the workplace progressing through the public private partnerships that help maintain the parks and culminating in an investigation of a park s contribution to urban real estate values the book unearths a new urban order based on nonprofit partnerships and a rhetoric of responsible citizenship which at the same time promotes unpaid work reinforces workers domination at the workplace and increases the value of park side property Who Cleans the Park asks difficult questions about who benefits from public work ultimately forcing us to think anew about the way we govern ourselves with implications well beyond the five boroughs Les Uniformes de l'Honneur Alain Ricaud,2014-06-15 Au travers de la vie d un homme histoire des guerres de d colonisations fran aises de l Indochine l Alg rie Marching with the Devil David Mason,2011-09-27 Since its creation in 1831 the French Foreign Legion has become the stuff of myth fiction and dreams Anyone thinking of joining up would be well advised to read this book first The Sun Herald A real life boy s own adventure Marching With The Devil is an account of David Mason s five years in the infamous French Foreign Legion David Mason graduated from the Australian National University with a law degree and an honours degree Like those around him he could easily have settled for a life of share portfolios good suits new cars and big houses But David wanted more he wanted a challenge an adventure something beyond the ordinary that would test him physically and mentally He looked around to see what he could do Working in an open cut mine done that Running a marathon hmm not hard enough Climbing Everest maybe Joining the French Foreign Legion perfect Marching With The Devil is the gripping true story of what happened when an Australian lawyer left his comfortable existence and joined the legendary French Foreign Legion He stayed for five years and served time in the elite Parachute Regiments With the motto March or Die the legion has a history of pain grief and glory David Mason takes us behind the myth to reveal exactly what happens the adventure the danger the drinking the fighting and the lies that sustain the legend fore the final choice must be made Remarkable It s hard not to think it a shame that a man of such obvious gifts should have wasted them on the legion just so as not to have to feel like a quitter even if this book was the result The Age Marching with the Devil quickly turns into an insightful and honest account of an unpretentious Aussie s experiences in one of the most ramshackle and soul destroying military organisations on Earth Courier Mail A strangely compulsive read about one man s quest for self knowledge Men s Health Magazine Mason left a comfortable life in Australia to test himself in the crucible of the legion and he writes about it 20 years after his service time necessary to give himself the distance and context he needed to write about an extraordinary and painful experience Sunday Mail Brisbane Youth and Work in the Post-Industrial City of North America and Europe Laurence Roulleau-Berger,2003 In North American and European cities youth live in precarious social and economic conditions The issue of employment has become a political problem In this volume sociological economical and ethnographical perspectives are used to explain ethnic discrimination inequalities at
