more relative to them than the writer of these pages whose leisure hours are few and whose endeavour will be to give in as popular and interesting a manner as his abilities will enable him some information respecting the mode of keeping this Holy Feast particularly in England in the olden times and in the middle ages The Nativity is hailed by Christians of all denominations as the dawn of our salvation the harbinger of the day spring on high that promise of futurity where care sin and sorrow enter not where friends long severed shall meet to part no more no pride no jealousy no self that besetting sin of the world intruding Well then may we observe it with gratitude for the unbounded mercy vouchsafed to us for the fulfilment of the promise pronounced in the beginning of the world releasing us from the dominion of Satan A promise which even the Pagans did not lose sight of although they confused its import as a glimmering of it may be traced through their corrupted traditions and superstitious ceremonies Has the early dream of youth faded away purposeless the ambition of manhood proved vanity of vanities Have riches made themselves wings and flown away or has fame just within the grasp burst like a bubble Have the friends the companions of youth one by one fallen off from thy converse or the prop of advancing age been removed leaving thee weak and struggling with the cares of life or has the desire of thine eyes been taken from thee at a stroke Under these and other trials the Christian looks to the anniversary of the Nativity that rainbow of Christianity as the commemoration of the birth of the Blessed Redeemer who will give rest to the weary and receive in his eternal kingdom all those who truly trust in him And well may His name be called Wonderful Counsellor the Mighty God the Everlasting Father the Prince of Peace The season of Christmas however was not only set apart for sacred observance but soon became a season of feasting and revelry so much so that even our sumptuary laws have recognised it and exempted it from their operation When Edward the Third in his tenth year endeavoured to restrain his subjects from over luxury in their meals stating that the middle classes sought to imitate the great in this respect and thus impoverished themselves and became the less able to assist their liege lord he forbade more than two courses and two sorts of meat in each to any person except in the great feasts of the year namely La veile et le jour de No l le jour de Saint Estiephne le jour del an renoef New Year s Day les jours de la Tiphaynei et de la Purification de Nostre Dame c

Another Christ Andrew D. Mayes, 2024-08-30 This is a riveting book with bite an exploration with edginess Compelling and arresting images confront us with a fresh view of Jesus and of ourselves as we rediscover our vocation to be Another Christ for troubled times Recent research into the first century setting of the gospel and the author's years in the Holy Land cast unexpected light on both the identity of Jesus and our present calling while Francis of Assisi reveals how this can be creatively lived out We have a choice If we keep before our eyes images of Christ that are comforting soothing familiar traditional then our Christian life may turn out to be prosaic pedestrian and predictable a preservative to maintain the status quo But if we allow our discipleship today to be unsettled and inspired by images of Christ that are dynamic risky outrageous brave passionate radical then we open ourselves to new possibilities we embark on a liberating adventure an odyssey of the soul a pilgrimage a voyage into untested waters What will we choose Do we dare to take the unpredictable path And which route will respond most courageously to the needs of today's wounded world
