Jung and Steiner Gerhard Wehr, 2003-02 All descriptions of the past are in the present therefore history tells our descendants more about us than it does about the imaginary creatures we like to call our ancestors All of which is only another way of saying that the past and the future do not exist nevertheless we need these narrative fictions for we gain knowledge by looking backward at patterns and forward in anticipation of the results of our actions William Irwin Thompson With the threat of global climate change a looming mass extinction of species and increasingly complex and volatile geopolitical relations the entire Earth Community has entered a most critical phase of what the author describes as the Planetary Era This era began some five hundred years ago with the conquest of the Americas and the Copernican revolution in cosmology but it is just now becoming a defining feature of human consciousness on a global scale How did the Planetary Era come about and why was it initiated in the European West What elements in the evolution of the Western worldview might contribute to the actualization of a sustainable planetary culture Drawing from a wide range of panoptic or big picture thinkers from Hegel Teilhard Jaspers and Campbell to Ken Wilber Richard Tarnas and Edgar Morin among others the author answers such questions and presents his own synthetic theory of the evolution of consciousness leading to the birth and transformation of the Planetary Era Beginning with a consideration of the fundamental pattern of world history Sean Kelly reveals the role of a Great Code and the turning of a tightening spiral in the evolution of the past two millennia of Western and increasingly planetary consciousness Along with a vision of the path that has lead to our vexed and complex present the author offers reason to hope that we are on the threshold of a new countercultural resurgence a new planetary wisdom culture that could signal the homecoming for which our troubled world so desperately longs
