Face to Face Samuel Wells, 2020-01-21 Pastors priests and pastoral caregivers often accompany people who are struggling to negotiate experiences of sickness bereavement or anxiety There are no easy answers in such situations no formulaic remedies and no slick theological explanations The process of being present listening and responding is demanding It can require skills and wisdom beyond the ministers own experience Often caregivers feel they receive as much or more than they give to the care seekers in such encounters In Face to Face Samuel Wells reflects theologically and pastorally on twenty such encounters in care giving that were both hugely challenging and hugely instructive for him The result is a book of profound practical wisdom and understanding that will inform and enrich pastoral ministry for all who read it An extended introduction on the nature and practice of pastoral ministry provides the foundation for the telling of these memorable and moving accounts

The Psychology of Wealth Jugraj Singh, lessons on achieving wealth and happiness doing well with money isn't about what you know It's about what you do with it and how you execute it And behavior is hard to teach even to really smart people How to manage money invest it and make business decisions are typically considered to involve a lot of mathematical calculations where data and formulae tell us exactly what to do But in the real world people don't make financial decisions on a spreadsheet They make them at the dinner table or in a meeting room where personal history your unique view of the world ego pride marketing and odd incentives are scrambled together In the psychology of wealth the author shares 8 lessons exploring the strange ways people think about money and teaches you how to make better sense of one of life's most important matters
