Esu-Elegba's Crossroads Eric Mayer-García, Solimar Otero, 2025-04-25 This book features a collection of essays and testimonials that provide new perspectives and incisive criticism on the writings and theatrical productions of Nigerian American author director and theorist Femi Euba Esu the Yoruba trickster deity of the crossroads brings cohesion to this project and serves as a guiding principle for its contributors who draw upon Esu's mysteries to illuminate distinctive characteristics of Euba's oeuvre. As a key figure of Wole Soyinka's circle, Euba's literature theory research and artistic practice deeply engage with the works of Soyinka. The contributions to this volume uncover multiple connections between these two artists and break ground in scholarship by considering their works together through comparative analysis. The voices of leading and emerging scholars bring together African Drama, Comparative Literature and Theatre History in an interdisciplinary discourse on Euba which greatly complements his vast achievements. Chapters delve into Euba's cultural theory informed by Esu, particularly his theory of satire, and offer insight into many of his creative works including Camwood at Crossroads, Tortoise The Gulf and The Eye of Gabriel. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Atlantic Studies.

European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa Albert S. Gérard, 1986. The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages. European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S. Gérard falls into four wide-ranging sections: an overview of early contacts and colonial developments; Under Western Eyes; chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafrikanism and Negritude; a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles; and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore.

An introductory e Queer in Africa Zethu Matebeni, Surya Monro, Vasu Reddy, 2018-05-23. African sexualities are dynamic, multi-faceted and resilient. However, people with non-heterosexual sexualities and gender variant identities are often involved in struggles for survival, self-definition and erotic rights. Queer in Africa forms an entry point for understanding the vulnerabilities of queer Africans as shaped by social, cultural and political processes, aiming to provide innovative insights about contentious disagreements over their lives. The volume mediates Southern and Northern scholarship, directing attention toward African-centred beliefs made accessible to a wide audience. Key concerns such as identity construction and the intersections between different social forces such as nationalist traditionalism and sexualities are addressed via engaging chapters, some empirically based and others providing critical cultural analysis. Highly interdisciplinary in nature, Queer in Africa provides a key resource for students, academics and activists concerned with the international support of sex and gender diversity. It will appeal to those interested in fields such as anthropology, film studies, literary studies, political science, public health, sociology and socio-legal studies.

Imprisoning a Revolution Collective Antigone, 2025-01-07. A groundbreaking collection of writings by political prisoners in Egypt, offering a unique lens on the global rise of authoritarianism during the last decade. This book contains letters, poetry and art produced by Egypt's incarcerated from the eruption of the January 25, 2011 uprising. Some are by journalists, lawyers, activists and artists imprisoned for expressing their opposition to Egypt's authoritarian order; others are by ordinary citizens caught up in the zeal to silence any hint of challenge to state power, including bystanders whose only crime was to be near a police sweep. Together, the contributors raise profound questions about the nature of politics in both authoritarian regimes.

and their democratic allies who continue to enable and support such violence This collection offers few answers and even less consolation but it does offer voices from behind the prison walls that remind readers of our collective obligation not to look away or remain silent With a foreword by acclaimed Egyptian novelist Ahmed Naji and an afterword with Kenyan literary giant Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Imprisoning a Revolution holds a mirror not just to Egypt but to the world today urging us to stop the rampant abuse and denial of fundamental human rights around the globe Engaging with Literature of Commitment. Volume 1, 2012-01-01 This collection ranges far and wide as befits the personality and accomplishments of the dedicatee Geoffrey V Davis German studies and exile literature scholar postcolonialist if there are specialties then Australia Canada India South Africa Black Britain journal and book series editor Themes covered include publishing in Africa charisma in African drama the rediscovery of apartheid era South African literature Truth and Reconciliation commissions South African cinema children's theatre in England and Eritrea and the Third Chimurenga in literary anthologies Surveyed are texts from Botswana Nigeria South Africa Tanzania and Zimbabwe Writers discussed or interviewed Angela Makholwa include Ayi Kwei Armah Seydou Badian J M Coetzee Chielo Zona Eze Ruth First Abdulrazak Gurnah Bessie Head Ian Holding Kaveevangua Kahengua Njabulo Ndebele Lara Foot Newton Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Micere Githae Mugo Sol Plaatje Ken Saro Wiwa Mongane Wally Serote Wole Soyinka and Edgar Wallace together with essays on the artist Sokari Douglas Camp and the filmmaker Rayda Jacobs Because Geoff's commitment to literature has always been hands on the book closes with a selection of poems and an entertaining travelogue memoir

Post-colonial Africa Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2014-08-06 This work is a general survey of Africa during the post colonial era The author looks at how African countries have fared under post colonial governments the challenges they have faced through the years and their successes and failures He also looks at Africa as a whole during the lost decades wasted years when performance of most countries in the political and economic arena was not what the people had expected They were some of the worst years in the history of post colonial Africa Poor economic performance abuse of power the brain drain caused by bad government policies and authoritarian rule forcing tens of thousands of Africans to flee their countries mostly to the West and most of them highly educated what Africa needs to do in order to develop why there is an imperative need to empower the people at the grassroots level land grab by foreign investors at the expense of peasants and others and how globalisation has affected Africa since the nineties when it became such a potent force after the end of the Cold War are some of the subjects the author has also addressed in the book It is a sweeping survey of the continent intended for the general reader and for members of the academic community Minima Ethnographica Michael Jackson, 1998-08 The postmodern opposition between theory and lived reality has led in part to an anthropological turn to dialogic or reflexive approaches Michael Jackson claims these approaches are hardly radical as they still drift into such abstractions as society or culture His Minima Ethnographica proposes an existential anthropology that recognizes even abstract relationships as modalities of interpersonal life Written in the style of Theodor Adorno's Minima Moralia Jackson's work shows how general ideas are always anchored in particular social events and critical concerns Emphasizing the intersubjective encounter over objective descriptions of the whole historical and contemporary situation of a given people he illustrates the power and originality of existential anthropology through a series of vignettes from his fieldwork in Sierra Leone and Australia An award winning poet novelist and anthropologist Jackson offers a timely critique of conventions that dull our sense of the links between academic study and lived experience The Perversity of Gratitude Grant Farred, 2024-01-19 While recollecting his educational experiences in apartheid South Africa the author grapples with the oppressive intent of the governing regime alongside its unintended benefits for his intellectual and individual development
