Nathaniel Hawthorne William T. LA Moy, Mary E. Fabiszewski, Jane E. Ward, 1993-01-01 Nathaniel Hawthorne, 1993 The Half-vanished Structure Magnus Ullén, 2004 This book takes issue with the tendency in twentieth century Hawthorne criticism to blur the distinction between symbolism and allegory Rejecting the long standing notion that Hawthorne is a symbolist in allegorical disguise Ullén argues that allegory is the key to understanding how religion sexuality aesthetics and politics are interwoven in Hawthorne's writings The study presents a model for allegorical interpretation of general applicability which is brought to bear on each of Hawthorne's mature romances and on the oft neglected Wonder Books written for children An unparalleled analysis of the formal intricacies of Hawthorne's writings this book is an eloquent plea for the necessity of grounding ideological analysis in aesthetical considerations An Introduction to the U.S. Congress Charles Bancroft Cushman, 2006 What does Congress do How does it do it Why is it such a complicated institution This concise primer offers students and general readers a brief and systematic introduction to Congress and the role it plays in the US political system Drawing on his experience as a former Congressional staff member the author explores the different political natures of the House and Senate examines Congress's interaction with other branches of the Federal government and looks ahead to the domestic and foreign challenges that are likely to drive the Congressional agenda for decades to come The book provides revealing insights into the sometimes contradictory Congressional responsibilities of representation and lawmaking oversight and appropriation and managing and organizing the government It includes a case study on the formation of the Department of Homeland Security that sheds light on Congress's often complicated procedures The book also includes boxed features on Congressional action highlighting such topics as file sharing and student loans that show students how Congress's work affects their lives Chapter ending lists of web resources add to the book's usefulness Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1882 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1893 The Atlantic Monthly, 1892 The Publishers Weekly, 1902 Oscar Wilde in America Oscar Wilde, 2010-10-01 Better known in 1882 as a cultural icon than a serious writer Oscar Wilde was brought to North America for a major lecture tour on Aestheticism and the decorative arts With characteristic aplomb he adopted the role as the ambassador of Aestheticism and he tried out a number of phrases ideas and strategies that ultimately made him famous as a novelist and playwright This exceptional volume cites all ninety one of Wilde's interviews and contains transcripts of forty eight of them and it also includes his lecture on his travels in America American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw, 1900 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher, 1883 The Nathaniel Hawthorne Review, 1996 The Critic, 1884 Critic and Good Literature Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1884 The Critic & Good Literature, 1884 The Nation, 1867 The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature, 1904 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1860 Critic and Literary World, 1890 Imperfectionist

Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life Peter Cheyne, 2022-12-30 This book presents interdisciplinary research on the aesthetics of perfection and imperfection Broadening this growing field it connects the aesthetics of imperfection with issues in areas including philosophy music literature urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies The contributors to this volume argue that imperfection has value in being open and inclusive The aesthetics of imperfection is typified by organic unpolished production and the avoidance of perfect finish instead representing living and natural change and opposing the consumerist concern with the flawless and pristine The chapters are divided into seven thematic sections After the first section on imperfection across the arts and culture the next three parts are on imperfection in the arts of music visual and theatrical arts and literature The second half of this book then moves to categories in everyday life and branches this further into body self and the person and urban environments Together the chapters promote a positive ethos of imperfection that furthers individual and social engagement and supports creativity over mere passivity Imperfectionist Aesthetics in Art and Everyday Life will appeal to a broad range of scholars and advanced students working in philosophical aesthetics literature music urban environment architecture art theory and cultural studies
