Black Muslim Religion in the Nation of Islam, 1960-1975 Edward E. Curtis IV, 2009-01-05 Elijah Muhammad's Nation of Islam came to America's attention in the 1960s and 1970s as a radical separatist African American social and political group But the movement was also a religious one Edward E Curtis IV offers the first comprehensive examination of the rituals ethics theologies and religious narratives of the Nation of Islam showing how the movement combined elements of Afro Eurasian Islamic traditions with African American traditions to create a new form of Islamic faith Considering everything from bean pies to religious cartoons clothing styles to prayer rituals Curtis explains how the practice of Islam in the movement included the disciplining and purifying of the black body the reorientation of African American historical consciousness toward the Muslim world an engagement with both mainstream Islamic texts and the prophecies of Elijah Muhammad and the development of a holistic approach to political religious and social liberation Curtis's analysis pushes beyond essentialist ideas about what it means to be Muslim and offers a view of the importance of local processes in identity formation and the appropriation of Islamic traditions

A Nation Like All Nations Moshe Berent, 2015-04-21 Is there an Israeli nation How is it related to the historical Jewish People How is it related to the Zionist movement Under what conditions could non Jews become equal members of this nation These and other questions stand at the center of the Moshe Berent's A Nation Like All Nations Towards the Establishment of an Israeli Republic The mission of the Zionist movement was to work toward the normalization of Jewish existence to become a nation like all nations Israel contrary to that aspiration is not a normal nation state since according to the formal national ethos it belongs to the Jewish people and there is no recognized Israeli nation Dr Berent asserts that the fusion of nationality and religion together with the absence of a normal nation state are the source of Israel's basic problems and are responsible for Israel's powerlessness to solve problems i.e. the status of religion in public life The relations between seculars and religious the status of non Jews especially Arabs the absence of a constitution the inability to agree about borders or to decide about peace and war A Nation Like All Nations Towards the Establishment of an Israeli Republic makes the case that a separation between nationality and religion the recognition in the existence of an Israeli nation and the establishment of Israel as a republic as the State of the Israeli nation is a pre condition for finding the solution of all of these problems Readings in Arab Middle Eastern Societies and Cultures Abdulla M.
