Beyond Coercion Adeed Dawisha, I. William Zartman, 2015-07-24 This volume first published in 1988 analyses the process of stabilisation amongst the Arab states a process that has contradicted all predictions of impending disintegration and impending collapse Although there were some cases of disintegration there are evidently mechanisms at work that helped consolidate the majority of Arab states and the Arab state system Revolutions as in Iran or the Sudan or political collapse and disintegration as in Lebanon have been highly visible but nevertheless exceptions This collection Volume Three in the Nation State and Integration in the Arab World research project carried out by the Istituto Affari Internazionali focuses on the problem of explaining the stability and persistence of the state in the Arab world The Foundations of the Arab State Ghassan Salamah, 1987 Development, Environment, and Global Dysfunction Toward Sustainable Recovery Yosef Gotlieb, 1995-12-01 This book challenges conventional concepts of development and Modernization and surveys their contribution to global dysfunction entrenched poverty environmental degradation and socio political unrest Gotlieb argues for a social ecology based on quality of life and community environmental sustainability and needs based rather than growth oriented economic systems Communities must find their own paths to environmentally sustainable recovery from local manifestations of global dysfunction A Critical Political Economy of the Middle East and North Africa Joel Beinin, Bassam Haddad, Sherene Seikaly, 2020-12-22 This book offers the first critical engagement with the political economy of the Middle East and North Africa Challenging conventional wisdom on the origins and contemporary dynamics of capitalism in the region these cutting edge essays demonstrate how critical political economy can illuminate both historical and contemporary dynamics of the region and contribute to wider political economy debates from the vantage point of the Middle East Leading scholars representing several disciplines contribute both thematic and country specific analyses Their writings critically examine major issues in political economy notably the mutual constitution of states markets and classes the co constitution of class race gender and other forms of identity varying modes of capital accumulation and the legal political and cultural forms of their regulation relations among local national and global forms of capital class and culture technopolitics the role of war in the constitution of states and classes and practices and cultures of domination and resistance Visit politicaleconomyproject.org for additional media and learning resources Language, Ideology and Sociopolitical Change in the Arabic-speaking World Lian Chaoqun Lian, 2020-05-28 This book offers a critical interpretation of how the meta linguistic LPLP discourse of major Arabic language academies from the turn of the twentieth century until the present day continuously burden language with extra linguistic sociopolitical meanings making it a proxy for the protracted courses of national identity negotiation counter peripheralisation in the modern world system and modernisation Integrating theories of language symbolism language indexicality LPLP habitus banal nationalism world system and perspectives of Critical Discourse Analysis the book develops our understanding of the phenomenon and mechanism of the entanglement between language ideology

Vatikiotis, 2015-07-24 Three main themes are explored in this book first published in 1984 the first is the problem of religion and politics as a major and long standing preoccupation of Middle easterners or Arab Muslims themselves the second is that of the conflict ridden inter Arab and regional politics approached largely from a local rather than an international perspective the third deals with Egypt The book also enquires into the nature of rule and regimes in the Middle East the basis of authority and the arrangements for the organisation exercise and use of power Drawing examples from Egypt and the Fertile Crescent the emphasis is on the relation between tradition and politics historical evolution and state policy domestic factors and external constraints The Rentier State Hazem Beblawi, Giacomo Luciani, 2015-07-16 This volume first published in 1987 is devoted to a discussion of interrelations of the economic base with the cultural social and political structures and of its impact on the state The rentier states of the Middle East which derive a substantial part of their revenue from foreign sources in the form of rent largely oil revenues face the same basic problem the challenge of transforming their economies to give increased strength to productive activity and rely on its progress to increase state revenue from domestic sources This book Volume Two in the Nation State and Integration in the Arab World research project carried out by the Istituto Affari Internazionali examine the issue of the modernization of rentier states public finance which may well entail important modifications in their domestic politics Transnational Generations in the Arab Gulf States and Beyond Kyoko Matsukawa, Akiko Watanabe, Zahra R. Babar, 2023-12-01 This book examines the recent migration phenomenon in the Arab Gulf states for work and residence It sheds light on the transnationality of diverse groups of migrants from different generations and unpacks how migrants multiple senses of belonging orientations and adaptive strategies have shaped contemporary migration in the Gulf region In turn the analysis presented here shows how the Arab Gulf states citizenship and educational policies affect second generation migrants in particular Through a series of fine grained ethnographic case studies the authors demonstrate the ways in which these second generation migrants construct their identities in relation to their putative home country in the Gulf as well as their complex relationship to their parents countries of origin This is what underpins the deeply transnational character of their lives choices and notions of belonging While migration scholars often situate these groups as temporary this does not in fact capture the reality of temporariness for the migrants themselves their children or their dependants The result is a complex and ongoing construction of identity that shapes the way of life for millions of migrants Relevant to scholars of migration and international studies particularly focused on the Middle East Transnational Generations in the Arab Gulf States and Beyond is also of interest to social scientists researching student mobility in higher education intergenerational families identity politics and globalisation Migration, Security, and Citizenship in the Middle East P. R. Kumaraswamy, 2019-11-30 This Handbook presents a broad yet nuanced portrait of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan its socio political rifts economic challenges foreign policy priorities and historical complexities The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan has traditionally been an oasis of peace and stability in the ever turbulent Middle East The political ambitions of regional powers often expressed in the form of territorial aggrandisement have followed the Hashemites like an inseparable shadow The scarcity of natural resources especially water has been compounded by the periodic influx of refugees from its neighbours As a result many Arab and non Arab alike have questioned the longevity and survival of Jordan These uncertainties were compounded when the founding ruler King Abdullah I became involved in the nascent Palestinian problem at the end of World War II The annexation of the eastern part of Mandate Palestine or the West Bank in the wake of the 1948 War transformed the Jordanian demography and sowed the seeds of an uneasy relationship with the Palestinian component of its population citizens residents and refugees Though better natural resources and stronger leaders have not ensured political stability in many Arab and non Arab countries Jordan has been an exception Indeed since its formation as an Emirate by the British in 1921 the Kingdom has seen only four rulers a testimony to the sagacity and political foresight of the Hashemites The Hashemites have managed to sustain the semi rentier model primarily through international aid and assistance which in turn inhibits Jordan from pursuing rapid political and economic reforms Though a liberal multi religious and multicultural society Jordan has been hampered by social cleavages especially between the tribal population and the forces of modernization Middle East Dilemma Michael C. Hudson, 1999 From the unification of North and South Yemen to the struggle for Mahgreb unity and the experiences of the six member Gulf Cooperation Council this book presents a complex portrait of the history and prospects for Arab integration Egypt, Islam, and the Arabs Israel Gershoni, James P. Jankowski, 1987-01-29 Throughout the 20th century Egyptian nationalism has alternately revolved around three primary axes a local Egyptian territorial nationalism a sense of Arab ethnic linguistic nationalism and an identification with the wider Muslim community This detailed study is devoted to the first major phase in the perennial debate over nationalism in modern Egypt the territorial nationalism dominant in Egypt in the early 20th century The first section of the book examines the effects of World War I and its aftermath which temporarily gave rise to an exclusively Egyptianist national orientation in Egypt Subsequent sections consider the intellectual and political dimensions of Egyptian interwar years Egypt Islam and the Arabs is the first volume in a new Oxford series Studies in Middle Eastern History The General Editors of the series are Bernard Lewis of Princeton University Itamar Rabinovich of Tel Aviv University and Roger M Savory of the University of Toronto Routledge Companion to China and the Middle East and North Africa

Matteo Legrenzi, 2016-04-15 Regional cooperation regionalism and regionalization in the Middle East are usually considered to be weak and rather ceremonial However since September 11 2001 a new regional order is emerging and the impact of geostrategic changes in the international environment has yet to be satisfactorily studied With older regional organizations suffering from weaknesses new forms appear to be developing and flourishing due either to European support or growing sub regional identities This volume offers refined theoretical models and approaches which are attuned to the new dynamics and contradictions of a wide range of regionalist projects in the contemporary Middle East Case studies of the most important regional organizations in different policy fields offer comprehensive overviews of the main actors institutions historical development and current issues
