The UN's Role in Nation-Building: From the Congo to Iraq James Dobbins, Seth G. Jones, Keith Crane, Andrew Rathmell, Brett Steele, 2001-03-29 Reviews UN efforts to transform eight unstable countries into democratic peaceful and prosperous partners and compares those missions with U S nation building operations The UN provides the most suitable institutional framework for nation building missions that require fewer than 20 000 men one with a comparatively low cost structure a comparatively high success rate and the greatest degree of international legitimacy Nation Building Eric Bjornlund, National Democratic Institute for International Affairs, 1990-01-01 The UN's Role in Nation-building James Dobbins, 2005 Reviews UN efforts to transform eight unstable countries into democratic peaceful and prosperous partners and compares those missions with U S nation building operations The UN provides the most suitable institutional framework for nation building missions that require fewer than 20 000 men one with a comparatively low cost structure a comparatively high success rate and the greatest degree of international legitimacy Nation-Building , Leveraging for Success in United Nations Peace Operations Jean Krasno, Bradd C. Hayes, Donald C. Daniel, 2003-09-30 Peacekeeping has become one of the most important tasks of the United Nations with more than 55 missions created since 1948 Peacekeeping is one of the only multilateral tools that the member states have to address conflicts in all parts of the world Over 44 000 troops from 90 countries are deployed today Drawing on first hand accounts of participants in past peacekeeping successes and failures this study focuses on how better to ensure success through the use of leverage as a central tool While the threat of military force can be used to compel compliance other sources of leverage such as the threat of sanctions or the withdrawal of loans can also be effective Economic incentives also provide vital leverage Moral suasion and leadership skills are critical as well The choice of key personnel particularly in the role of the Special Representatives of the Secretary General as in the utilization of Jacques Kline in Eastern Slavonia has also proved be key These case studies carefully examine how a confluence of tools have been brought to bear in circumstances ranging from East Timor and Namibia The United Nations in Namibia , 2003 This publication presents a briefing on the programme of activities that the UN as technical co operation partner with the Government of Namibia will implement for the period 2002 2005 The first part of the publication highlights the UN common objectives and activities and the instruments and mechanisms in place through which the UN System as a whole in partnership with the government civil society donors and the private sector strives towards the achievement of the two strategic objectives poverty and inequality reduction and HIV AIDS containment The second part in loose leaf format project profiles is a synopsis of the projects of most of the UN programme and or funding agencies present in the countries Foreword

Anti-racism and Multiculturalism Mark Alleyne, 2017-09-08 All scholarly books are engagements with the existing literature often the published scholarly work of one established discipline This book originated with modest objectives to produce a work that would be in conversation with the literature of international relations even though not of relevance only to that field The professed goal of international relations is international peace The ethical lens of pondering the best means to achieve world peace is used to filter media content in the field of multiculturalism and anti racism Although there has been little work on the impact of racial difference on the contours of contemporary international order there has been a sizeable body of research intended to abolish the credibility of pseudo scientific racism Such racism has provided the ideological foundation and justification for imperialism colonialism the holocaust and apartheid Race has been debunked as a myth Because of this racism the ideology bred of human classification according to racial difference has been found to be intellectually and morally barren But the need to communicate egalitarian and scientific sentiments remains The contributors to this volume consider five questions How does the literature on antiracism improve our understanding of conflict resolution How does the analysis of the media's role in racist and anti racist discourses improve the process of theorizing on hate and war propaganda How can research on anti racist discourse improve UN peacekeeping What implications does this subject have for theory building and cultural diversity How and why should the literature on anti racism expand research in international relations This is a unique worthwhile framework for cross disciplinary research in race and intellectual consensus and conflict

Perspectives on Western Sahara Anouar Boukhars, Jacques Roussellier, 2013-12-18 The ongoing conflict in Western Sahara is one of the more intractable legacies of European colonization in North Africa Following the withdrawal of Spain this territorial dispute escalated in 1975 into a war of independence between the Sahrawi people of the Polisario Front who were backed by Algeria and the states of Mauritania and Morocco In 1976 the Polisario Front established the Sahrawi Arab

Democratic Republic which was not admitted in the UN but won recognition by a few states After multiple peace efforts the conflict reemerged in 2005 as the independence Intifada Today the Polisario Front controls about 20% of Western Sahara At the heart of the conflict lie geopolitical interests and incompatible claims aggravated by the use of military force and decades of mostly unproductive diplomatic maneuvers by international bodies and regional or foreign powers This thorough impartial survey brings together some of the best experts on the Sahara question to provide a broad based analysis of the problem from a range of perspectives Featuring new research the chapters examine the roots of the conflict its dynamics and potential solutions This groundbreaking text also addresses questions of law human rights natural resources from an analytical point of view Contributed by scholars from North Africa Europe and the U S it is an essential contribution to the literature of Middle East and African studies

The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale, 2014-11-19 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process

Beyond UN Subcontracting Thomas G. Weiss, 2016-07-27 Beyond UN Subcontracting sheds light through a series of post Cold War case studies on whether one United Nations efforts both to devolve responsibility for security to regional institutions and the delivery of some of their services to international nongovernmental organisations are a step toward or away from better global governance The cases are designed to explore patterns of interaction and to provide lessons for the future

Armed State Building Paul D. Miller, 2013-08-15 Since 1898 the United States and the United Nations have deployed military force more than three dozen times in attempts to rebuild failed states Currently there are more state building campaigns in progress than at any time in the past century including Afghanistan Bosnia Kosovo the Democratic Republic of Congo Haiti Sudan Liberia Cote d'Ivoire and Lebanon and the number of candidate nations for such campaigns in the future is substantial Even with a broad definition of success earlier campaigns failed more than half the time In this book Paul D Miller brings his decade in the U S military intelligence community and policy worlds to bear on the question of what causes armed international state building campaigns by liberal powers to succeed or fail The United States successfully rebuilt the West German and Japanese states after World War II but failed to build a functioning state in South Vietnam After the Cold War the United Nations oversaw relatively successful campaigns to restore order hold elections and organize post conflict reconstruction in Mozambique Namibia Nicaragua and elsewhere but those successes were overshadowed by catastrophes in Angola Liberia and Somalia The recent effort in Iraq and the ongoing one in Afghanistan where Miller had firsthand military intelligence and policymaking experience are yielding mixed results despite the high levels of resources dedicated and the long duration of the missions there Miller outlines different types of state failure analyzes various levels of intervention that liberal states have tried in the state building process and distinguishes among the various failures and successes those efforts have provoked International Monitoring of Plebiscites, Referenda and National Elections Yves Beigbeder, 1994-01-01 INDEX Max Planck Yearbook of United Nations Law Armin Von Bogdandy, Rüdiger Wolfrum, Christiane E. Philipp, 2005-09 This publication constitutes the first scholarly periodical to focus on activities of the United Nations in the field of international law It recognizes the recent increased impact of the development of the World Organization its Specialized Agencies and other aspects of the United Nations System as well as their effect on the shaping of international relations
