National Congress Catholic Schools For The 21st Century Executive Summary:

Executive Summary ,1992 National Congress Catholic Schools for the 21st Century ,1992 Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as educational leader, expectations in the areas of leadership, curriculum, and instruction Maria J. Ciriello,1996 A three volume preparation program for future and neophyte principals Cover Includes bibliographical references p 279 285 Catholic School Leadership Thomas Hunt,Brother Thomas Oldenski,Theodore J. Wallace,2005-07-27 Catholic School Leadership addresses many of the challenges facing those who prepare faith leaders and education leaders for the Catholic schools of the future The well known editors and contributors to this volume have written about their personal experiences with Catholic schools the educational foundations of Catholic schools teacher preparation and development Catholic school leadership dealing with parents and families and the challenges of technology for Catholic schools The contributions emphasize the perspectives of both scholars and practitioners within Catholic education and will interest anyone who has experienced time in a Catholic school either as a student teacher or administrator as well as those interested in what is happening within Catholic schools today Catholic Schools in the Public Interest Patricia A. Bauch,2014-03-01 This book is a study of the contributions of Catholic K 12 schools in the United States to the public interest from the 1800 s to the present It presents seven strategies that have the possibility of leading Catholic schools in positive new directions Outsiders often misunderstand the mission purpose and inclusivity of Catholic schools This book brings a new focus on Catholic schools from the perspective of their service to this country through the education of Catholics and non Catholics In 16 chapters a variety of scholars examine these schools across three periods echoes of the past realities of the present and future directions The intention of the editor and authors of this volume is that Catholic schools and those interested in conducting Catholic school research will find guidance especially in examining newer types of partnerships flourishing in different types of Catholic schools in different regions of the country and types of schools from rural suburban to city and inner city schools By increasing the data we have such studies could help stem the tide of Catholic school demise In addition Catholic school leaders and parents who chose them or are thinking about choosing them will find here a balanced description of what constitutes a Catholic school and how they are different from public schools In understanding better the role and function of Catholic schools in serving the public interest new ideas innovations and improvements can help these schools survive and grow Religious Schools in the United States K-12 (1993) Thomas C. Hunt,James Carper,2017-12-15 First published in 1993 this volume is an extension and revision of the 1986 book entitled Religious Schools in America A Selected Bibliography This new version contains additional annotated bibliographies of the various denominational schools as well as discussing governmental relation to each setting in the years from 1985 to 1992 This version also covers Greek Orthodox and Muslim schools that were not part of the previous volume and includes a chapter on the growth of home schooling which is often influenced by religion Finally unlike the previous edition this book only considers religious schools rather than the religious aspect or function of public schooling Each section includes a short chapter followed by an extensive annotated bibliography making it a useful source for anyone looking for information in the area
