Bryan G. Norton, Michael Hutchins, Terry Maple, Elizabeth Stevens, 2012-01-11 Ethics on the Ark presents a passionate multivocal discussion among zoo professionals, activists, conservation biologists and philosophers about the future of zoos and aquariums, the treatment of animals in captivity and the question of whether the individual, the species or the ecosystem is the most important focus in conservation efforts. Contributors represent all sides of the issues. Moving from the fundamental to the practical, from biodiversity to population regulation, from animal research to captive breeding, Ethics on the Ark represents an important gathering of the many fervent and contentious viewpoints shaping the wildlife conservation debate.

Ivan Katherine Applegate, 2014 The true story of Ivan, known as the Shopping Mall Gorilla, who lived alone in a small cage for almost 30 years before being relocated to the gorilla habitat at Zoo Atlanta Big Mall Kate Black, 2024-02-13 A phenomenology of the mall. If the mall makes us feel bad, why do we keep going back? In a world poisoned by capitalism, what makes life worth living? Kate Black grew up in West Edmonton Mall, a mall on steroids, notorious for its indoor waterpark, deadly roller coaster and controversial dolphin shows. But everyone has a favourite mall or a mall that is their own personal memory palace. It's a place people love to hate and hate to love, a site of pleasure and pain, of death and violence, of sub-urban legend. Blending a history of shopping with a story of coming of age in North America's largest and strangest mall, Big Mall investigates how these structures have become the ultimate symbol of late capitalist dread and, surprisingly, a subversive site of hope. Speaking as a child of PacSun and Hot Topic, myself, Big Mall is like a madeleine dipped in Orange Julius. Like a mall, the book itself has a lot of everything, a sublime mix of memoir, history and cultural criticism. Kate Black is a learned Virgil in the consumerist Inferno, always avoiding the obvious and leading us to surprising connections: oil, suicide, Reddit, squatters, dolphins. Whether malls fill you with nostalgia or horror, this book will change your relationship to the world we've constructed around us. Tony Tulathimutte, author of Private Citizens. Before there was Instagram, there was the mall. But what happens when a seasonless, tacky fantasyland is all you knew growing up? How does one embrace a genuinely fake experience? Or, to be more precise, a fake but genuine experience? Kate Black's Big Mall is a smart, sentimental and perspective-shifting look at the outsized role that big malls play in modern life. Love 'em or hate 'em, one thing's for sure: after reading this book, you'll never look at a mall in the same way again. Ziya Tong, Science broadcaster, author of The Reality Bubble Vegan
