Southern African Liberation Movements and the Global Cold War 'East' Lena Dallywater, Chris Saunders, Helder Adegar Fonseca, 2019-06-17 In the global context of the Cold War the relationship between liberation movements and Eastern European states obviously changed and transformed Similarly forms of material aid and ideological encouragement underwent changes over time The articles assembled in this volume argue that the traditional Cold War geography of bi polar competition with the United States is not sufficient to fully grasp these transformations The question of which side of the ideological divide was more successful or lucky in impacting actors and societies in the global south is still relevant yet the Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that exists until today Acknowledging the complexities of liberation movements in globalization processes the papers thus argue that activities need to be understood in their local context including personal agendas and internal conflicts rather than relying primarily on the traditional frame of Cold War competition They point to the agency of individual activists in both Africa and Eastern Europe and the lessons practices and languages that were derived from their often contradictory encounters In Southern African Liberation Movements authors from South Africa Portugal Austria and Germany ask What role did actors in both Southern Africa and Eastern Europe play What can we learn by looking at biographies in a time of increasing racial and international conflict And which creative solutions need to be found to combine efforts of actors from various ideological camps Building on archival sources from various regions in different languages case studies presented in the edition try to encounter the lack of a coherent state of the art They aim at combining the sometimes scarce sources with qualitative interviews to give answers to the many open questions regarding Southern African liberation movements and their connections to the East      Historical Evolution of the Eastern Mode of Production Zhao Jiaxiang, 2020-06-09 In the four volumes of The Development Trajectory of Eastern Societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism the author re examines Marx and Engels theories on the development trajectory of Eastern societies by integrating theoretical analysis of Marxist theories and a historical investigation of socialist revolution and socialist construction around the world This second volume focuses on Marx and Engels historical materialism explains the general laws of historical development and brings this to bear within the context of Eastern societies The author notes that Marx and Engels historical materialism and its derivative theories on Eastern societies are compatible and interconnected In addition he reveals how Marx and Engels theory of the Asiatic mode of production plays an important part in the development trajectory of Eastern societies and is closely related to their theory of five social forms This volume is a key reference for readers who study and are interested in Marxism Marxist philosophy and the history of philosophy The Development Trajectory of Eastern Societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism Zhao Jiaxiang, 2022-07-30 In the four volumes of The Development Trajectory of Eastern societies and the Theories and Practices of Socialism the author re examines Marx and Engels theories on the development trajectory of Eastern societies by integrating theoretical analysis of Marxist theories and an historical investigation of socialist revolution and socialist construction around the world The collection challenges some predominant interpretations of Marx and Engels historical materialism by focusing on that materialism explaining the general laws of historical development and its particular trajectory in Eastern societies discussing the attempts of the Russian Commune to avoid the torments of the capitalist system and tracing the victories and failures of the 100 year trajectory of socialism The significance of Marx and Engels socialist theories for contemporary social development in the Eastern societies is henceforth laid bare The book will be a key reference for readers studying Marxism Marxist philosophy and the history of philosophy Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Central Intelligence Agency, 1963 The Soviet Union and the Middle East Walter Z. Laqueur (Dec'd), 2021-08-07 First Published in 1959 The Soviet Union and the Middle East attempts to shed light on the evolution of Soviet attitudes toward the Middle East its problems challenges and opportunities since 1917 Divided into two parts the first part The Soviet Image of the Middle East presents an investigation into the sources of Soviet policy in that area while the second part The Great Breakthrough explores the political social and economic conditions in the Middle East The volume discusses themes like storm over Asia the arms deal the year of Suez the Syrian Crisis of 1957 Soviet trade and economic aid 1954 1958 Soviet cultural policy and the intellectual climate in the Arab world communism in the Middle East 1955 1958 and communism and Arab nationalism to ask larger questions like did the Soviet Communists expect the revolutionary events in Asia Were they instrumental in bringing them about or did they occur quite independently This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of political history international relations West Asian Studies Russian Studies and history of communism The National-liberation Movement in the East Владимир Ильич Ленин, 1957 Assembled in this volume are articles and speeches some complete some excerpts from the years 1900 1923 in which Lenin discusses the liberation struggles of colonial and dependant nations and the theoretical and political aspects of the Communist Party's slogan on the national colonial questions Preface Eastern Europe, the Soviet Union, and Africa Chris Saunders, Helder Adegar Fonseca, Lena Dallywater, 2023-04-27 It is now widely recognised that a Cold War perspective falls short in unfolding the complex geographies of connections and the multipolarity of actions and transactions that were shaped through the movement of individuals and ideas from Africa to the East and from the East to Africa in the decades in which African countries moved to independence Adopting an interdisciplinary transregional perspective this volume casts new light on aspects of the role of

Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union in the decolonisation of Africa Taking further themes explored in a collection of essays published by the editors in 2019 the twelve case studies by authors from South Africa Czech Republic Portugal Russia Hungary Italy Canada Serbia and Germany draw on new sources to explore the history of the ties that existed between African liberation movements and the socialist bloc some of which continue to influence relationships today Chapters contribute to three relevant main themes that resonate in a number of scholarly fields of inquiry ranging from Global Studies Transregional Studies Cold War Studies Global History to African Studies Eastern European Russian and Slavic Studies Reconsiderations Resources and Reverberations Drawing upon newly opened archives and combining transregional perspectives with sources in different languages chapters explicitly point out the shortcomings of past research and debates in the respective field They highlight new avenues which have been developing and which need to be further developed Reconsiderations Selected case studies address the resources of those being active and involved in decolonisation processes be it in East North West and South They reveal Which resources both material and intellectual are the actors drawing upon On the other hand From which resources are individuals on one side or the other reciprocally or intermittently intentionally kept away Resources Finally the third theme puts an emphasis on the historicity of the processes depicted Studies point to the gaps and dead ends of international support the paths that peter out but also to repercussions and reverberations up until today Reverberations Taken these three themes together the individual chapters contribute to the overall question of Which general historical narratives about the second half of the 20th century are changing based on these new research findings
