National Abjection:

National Abjection Karen Shimakawa, 2002-12-05 Explores the ways that playwrights and performers have dealt with the presentation of the Asian American body on stage given the historical construction of Asian Americanness as abject and unrepresentable

Abject Spaces in American Cinema Frances Pheasant-Kelly, 2013-05-21 American cinema abounds with films set in prisons asylums hospitals and other institutions Rather than orderly places of recovery and rehabilitation these institutional settings emerge as abject spaces of control and repression in which adult identity is threatened as a narrative impetus Exploring the abject through issues as diverse as racism mental illness or the preservation of bodies for organ donation thi book analyses a range of films including One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest 1975 The Shawshank Redemption 1994 Full Metal Jacket 1987 and Girl Interrupted 1999 through to cult films such as Carrie 1976 and Bubba Ho tep 2002 In these films locations of coherence and order become places where the internal and repressed aspects of the body individual and social threaten to overwhelm the individual Identity is compromised through harsh conditions extreme discipline the exertion of absolute control and above all the restriction of personal space Symbolically infantilised forced to reassess aspects of the adult the only escape is through violence the eponymous Carrie escapes from her cupboard for a massacre the women of Girl Interrupted mutilate and annihilate themselves and Kubrick s Gomer Pyle shoots sadistic patriarch Sergeant Hartman in the head By analysing scenes of horror and disgust within the context of abject space Frances Pheasant Kelly reveals how threats to identity manifest in scenes of torture horror and psychosexual repression and are resolved either through death or through traumatic re entry into the outside world Bringing together contemporary theoretical debates and critical disciplines Abject Spaces in American Cinema offers a coherent and meaningful analysis of institutonal films and shows that the chaos of the abject space cannot be resolved only escaped This readable and engging tour of the abject in the institution of film will be immensely valuable to students of Film Studies Critical Theory and Cultural Studies

“Mouths on Fire with Songs”. Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today s globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity In spired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor

Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today Postcolonial Literary Studies Robert P. Marzec, 2011-09-15 Internationally recognized for its superior scholarship Modern Fiction Studies was one of the first journals to publish articles on postcolonial studies Since postcolonialism's inception scholars have defined clarified and enriched its conceptions and theoretical development in the pages of MFS This anthology collects the best and most important articles on postcolonial literary studies published in MFS in the past thirty years Postcolonial Literary Studies brings together groundbreaking scholarship focusing on significant works of fiction by such writers as Chinua Achebe J M Coetzee Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Arundhati Roy Salman Rushdie Bapsi Sidhwa Ngugi wa Thiong'o and more The essays feature ideas that helped shape the discipline from its earliest stages to the present and represent some of the finest examples of literary theoretical historical and cultural criticism With its focus on literary figures and texts rather than solely on theory this volume fills a significant gap in the fields of postcolonialism global studies and literary criticism in general This rich collection of essays by the field's leading scholars will prove indispensable to instructors and students across a broad spectrum of humanistic studies It not only highlights the development and transformation of postcolonial literary study but also by mapping out new directions of study considers its continual significance and expansion Popular Music and Public Diplomacy Mario Dunkel, Sina A. Nitzsche, 2019-03-20 In the early years of the Cold War Western nations increasingly adopted strategies of public diplomacy involving popular music While the diplomatic use of popular music was initially limited to such genres as jazz the second half of the 20th century saw a growing presence of various popular genres in diplomatic contexts including rock pop bluegrass flamenco funk disco and hip hop among others This volume illuminates the interrelation of popular music and public diplomacy from a transnational and transdisciplinary angle The contributions argue that as popular music has been a crucial factor in international relations its diplomatic use has substantially impacted the global musical landscape of the 20th and 21st centuries Political Performance in Syria Edward Ziter, 2014-11-04 Political Performance in Syria charts the history of a theatre that has sought the expansion of civil society and imagined alternate political realities In doing so the manuscript situates the current use of performance and theatre by artists of the Syrian Revolution within a long history of political contestation Contours of the Nation Deborah McPhail, 2017-01-01 Contouring the Nation is the first book which historically explores obesity in Canada from a critical perspective Deborah McPhail demonstrates how obesity as a problem was affixed to particular populations in order to separate true Canadians from others A View from the Bottom Tan Hoang Nguyen, 2014-07-29 A View from the Bottom offers a major critical reassessment of male effeminacy and its racialization in visual culture Examining portrayals of Asian and Asian American men in Hollywood cinema European art film gay pornography and experimental documentary Nguyen Tan Hoang explores the cultural meanings that accrue to sexual positions He shows how cultural fantasies around the position of the sexual bottom overdetermine and refract the meanings of race gender sexuality and nationality in American culture in ways that both enable and constrain Asian masculinity Challenging the association of bottoming with passivity and abjection Nguyen suggests ways of thinking about the bottom position that afford agency and pleasure A more capacious conception of bottomhood as a sexual position a social alliance an affective bond and an aesthetic form has the potential to destabilize sexual gender and racial norms suggesting an ethical mode of relation organized not around dominance and mastery but around the risk of vulnerability and shame Thus reconceived bottomhood as a critical category creates new possibilities for arousal receptiveness and recognition and offers a new framework for analyzing sexual representations in cinema as well as understanding their relation to oppositional political projects      Keywords for Southern Studies Jennifer Rae

Greeson,2016-08-15 In Keywords for Southern Studies editors Scott Romine and Jennifer Rae Greeson have compiled an eclectic collection of new essays that address the fluidity of southern studies by adopting a transnational interdisciplinary focus The essays are structured around critical terms pertinent both to the field and to modern life in general The nonbinary nontraditional approach of Keywords unmask and refutes standard binary thinking First World Third World self other for instance that postcolonial studies revealed as a flawed rhetorical structure for analyzing empire Instead Keywords promotes a holistic way of thinking that begins with southern studies but extends beyond      Black Mothers and the National Body

Politic Andrea Powell Wolfe,2020-10-14 Black Mothers and the National Body Politic The Narrative Positioning of the Black Maternal Body from the Civil War Period through the Present focuses on the struggles and triumphs of black motherhood in six works of narrative prose composed from the Civil War period through the present Andrea Powell Wolfe examines the functioning of the black maternal body to both define and undermine ideal white womanhood the physical scarring of the black mother and the reclamation of the black maternal body as a site of subversion and nurturance as well as erotic empowerment and the construction of oppressive discourses surrounding black female bodies and reproduction and the development of resistance to these types of discourses These tensions undergird a multifaceted discussion of the narrative positioning of the black maternal body within and in relationship to the national body politic an inherently exclusionary and restrictive metaphorical entity constructed and socially contracted over time by an already politically empowered citizenry Ultimately close analysis of the texts under study suggests that the United States as a figurative body complete with imagined parts that perform separate functions from intelligence to labor ingestion to expulsion has simultaneously used and cast off the black maternal body over the course of centuries      Japanese Americans and the Racial Uniform Dana Y.

Nakano,2023-08-15 How race continues to shape the citizenship and everyday lives of later generation Japanese Americans Japanese Americans are seen as the model minority a group that has fully assimilated and excelled within the US Yet third and fourth generation Japanese Americans continue to report feeling marginalized within the predominantly white communities they call home Japanese Americans and the Racial Uniform explores this apparent contradiction challenging the way society understands the role of race in social and cultural integration To explore race and the everyday practices of citizenship Dana Y Nakano begins at an unlikely site Japanese Village and Deer Park a now defunct Japan themed amusement park in suburban Southern California Drawing from extensive interviews with the park s Japanese American employees as well as photographic imagery Nakano shows how the employees race acted as part of their work uniform and magnified their sense of alienation from their white peers and the park s white visitors While the racial perception of Japanese Americans as forever foreigners made them ideal employees for Deer Park the same stigma continues to marginalizes Japanese Americans beyond the place and time of the amusement park Into the present day third and fourth generation Japanese Americans share feelings of racialized non belonging and yearning for community Japanese Americans and the Racial Uniform pushes us to rethink the persistent recognition of racial markers the racial body as a visible ever present uniform and how it continues to impact claims on an American identity and the lived experience of citizenship Journal of Asian American Studies ,2008 Official publication of the Association for Asian American Studies explores all aspects of the Asian American experience Publishes original works of scholarly interest to the field including new theoretical developments research results methodological innovations public policy concerns pedagogical issues and book media reviews The Journal of Speculative Philosophy ,2004 Asian Theatre Journal ,2004 "Made, Not Born" Karen Shimakawa,1995 Flesh and Blood Kella de Castro Svetich,2005 The National Standard Dictionary ,1883 Imperial Objects Rita S. Kranidis,1998 Contains 12 contributions that address the cultural significance and social consequences of the emigration of Victorian women to the colonies and dominions of the British Empire Topics range from the transformative experiences of the female emigres to the role of social activists who promoted emigration for women and the female emigrant in Victorian literature National Cinemas and World Cinema Kevin Rockett,W. John Hill,2006 This is the third volume of papers from the Irish Postgraduate Film Research Seminar designed to encourage Irish film scholarship and the study of Irish film This collection includes new research on a wide range of topics including Irish European and Asian film There is a particular emphasis upon the international context of film production and reception and the volume includes the keynote lecture on new waves in world cinema by the distinguished film critic and scholar Dudley Andrew Intended to provide a platform for a growing body of work by young Irish scholars on Irish and other cinemas this volume provides new discussions of Irish and international film Strange Future Min Song,2005-11-10 DIVTheorizes race and nation in the cultural aftermath of the LA riots div
