Our Beloved Kin

Lisa Brooks,2018-01-09 A compelling and original recovery of Native American resistance and adaptation to colonial America With rigorous original scholarship and creative narration Lisa Brooks recovers a complex picture of war captivity and Native resistance during the First Indian War later named King Philip's War by relaying the stories of Weetamoo a female Wampanoag leader and James Printer a Nipmuc scholar whose stories converge in the captivity of Mary Rowlandson Through both a narrow focus on Weetamoo Printer and their network of relations and a far broader scope that includes vast Indigenous geographies Brooks leads us to a new understanding of the history of colonial New England and of American origins Brooks's pathbreaking scholarship is grounded not just in extensive archival research but also in the land and communities of Native New England reading the actions of actors during the seventeenth century alongside an analysis of the landscape and interpretations informed by tribal history

Geographies of Writing

Nedra

Reynolds,2007-09-03 Twenty first century technological innovations have revolutionized the way we experience space causing an increased sense of fragmentation danger and placelessness In Geographies of Writing Inhabiting Places and Encountering Difference Nedra Reynolds addresses these problems in the context of higher education arguing that theories of writing and rhetoric must engage the metaphorical implications of place without ignoring materiality Geographies of Writing makes three closely related contributions one theoretical to reimagine composing as spatial material and visual one political to understand the sociospatial construction of difference and one pedagogical to teach writing as a set of spatial practices Aided by seven maps and illustrations that reinforce the book's visual rhetoric Geographies of Writing shows how composition tasks and electronic space function as conduits for navigating reality Moon USA State by State Moon
