

NATIVE AMERICAN TRIBAL AND CULTURAL TERRITORIES OF NORTH AMERICA

Contemporary views of Native Americans in North America often rely on present-day knowledge, framed by the current borders of Canada, the United States, and Mexico. Long before borders existed in this part of the world, however, the soil was tilled and managed by diverse groups, clans, and tribes of indigenous peoples who brought cultures and knowledge linked by thousands of years of history.

as well as methods and practices of how to live and survive in the wilderness. Their intricate, yet durable lineage is etched and recorded in the rocks and woven into the soil and landscape of the continental region known as North America. Here is a general overview of this region and the cultural territories of its Indigenous peoples.
