Treaty of Waitangi and ensured that native title was made in New Zealand Australian Business Law 2012 Paul Latimer, 2012 International Trade and Business Law Review: Volume XII Gabriel Moens, Roger Jones, 2009-03-11 The International Trade and Business Law Review publishes leading articles, comments and case notes as well as book reviews dealing with international trade and business law, arbitration law, foreign law and comparative law. It provides the legal and business communities with information, knowledge and understanding of recent developments in international trade, business and international commercial arbitration. The Review contributes in a scholarly way to the discussion of these developments while being informative and having practical relevance to business people and lawyers. The Review also devotes a section to the Willem C Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot and publishes the memoranda prepared by teams coached by Professor Gabriel A Moens. The Review is edited at the Murdoch University School of Law in Perth, Australia. The Editors in Chief are Mr Roger Jones, Partner, Latham Watkins LLP, Chicago and Gabriel A Moens, Dean and Professor of Law, Murdoch Law School. It is an internationally refereed journal. The Review is supervised by an international board of editors that consists of leading international trade law practitioners and academics from the European Union, the United States, Asia and Australia. The Student Editors for Volume XII are Sybil Almeida, Gianni Bei, Luke Rotondella and Nicholas Summers from the Murdoch Law School. Country, Native Title and Ecology Jessica K. Weir, 2012-03-01 Country, native title and ecology all converge in this volume to describe the dynamic intercultural context of land and water management on Indigenous lands. Indigenous people's relationships with country are discussed from various speaking positions including identity and knowledge, the homelands debate, water planning, climate change and market environmentalism. The interdisciplinary chapters range from an ethnographic description of living waters in the Great Sandy Desert, negotiating the eradication of yellow crazy ants in Arnhem Land, and legal analysis of native title rights in emerging carbon markets. A recurrent theme is the contentions over meaning, knowledge and authority. Because this volume is scholarly, original and very timely, it represents a key resource and reference work for land and sea managers, policy makers, scholars of the interface between post-native title responsibilities, NRM objectives and appropriate heritage protocols, and students based in the social sciences, natural sciences and humanities. It is rare for volumes to have this much cross-academy purchase and for this reason alone it will have ongoing worth and value as a seminal collection. Associate Professor Peter Veth, ANU College of Arts and Social Sciences, The Australian National University. Dr Jessica Weir has published widely on water, native title and governance and is the author of Murray River Country: An Ecological Dialogue with Traditional Owners, Aboriginal Studies Press, 2009. Jessica's work was recently included in Stephen Pincock's Best Australian Science Writing 2011. In 2011, Jessica established the AIATSIS Centre for Land and Water Research in the Indigenous Country and Governance Research Program at the Australian Institute of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies.
