Studies in Zoroastrian Family Law Bodil Hjerrild, 2003 The source material of the book is translated from the only existent Sasanian law text and two Riv yats from the first half of the ninth and the first half of the tenth century at which time the Zoroastrians survived only in minority communities The original text is presented in photocopy with a transcription The analysis is concerned with four institutions in the sphere of family law Guardianship marriage of levirate marriage of a woman in order to provide her father or brother with an heir and marriage between close relatives incest taboo did not exist The issue of the research is to show how the social conditions and internal family economy with its power balance is reflected in the rules of the Sasanian law and that the differences apparent in the later texts are not accidental but form a pattern caused by the changing social conditions and that the law was changed in order to help preserve the Zoroastrian minority in adversity under Arab rule

The Political Situation in Egypt During the Second Intermediate Period, C. 1800-1550 B.C. K. S. B. Ryholt, Adam Bülow-Jacobsen, 1997 The Second Intermediate Period designates the 250 year period 1800-1550 BC which separates the two glorious periods of the Middle Kingdom and the New Kingdom During the 19th century BC an invasion by Canaanite tribes into the Delta took place Around 1800 BC these people proclaimed their own king and the Delta thus became independent from the rest of Egypt Egypt remained split between the Canaanitic rulers in North and the native Egyptian Kings in the South for the rest of the Second Intermediate Period The division of Egypt brought about an economic decline and the entire period is characterized by a lack of royal monuments This circumstance has greatly hampered any attempts to establish a chronology of the period and as a consequence it has been very difficult to date many sources which are relevant for the social and political situation of the period The Second Intermediate Period has therefore remained one of the most obscure periods of Egypt's ancient history The dissertation is a new attempt to establish a chronology for the Second Intermediate Period and define the different kingdoms their territories and political relations The study consists of four main chapters three appendixes a catalogue of sources bibliography and indices Included is a catalogue of all the historical sources about 1500 known to certify the names of the Egyptian kings of the Second Intermediate Period Each source is described in terms of type origin and present location followed by bibliographical references

A Miscellany of Demotic Texts and Studies Paul John Frandsen, K. S. B. Ryholt, Joachim Friedrich Quack, 2000 Third in the series of texts of the The Carlsberg Papyri The Petese Stories II (P. Petese II) K. S. B. Ryholt, 2006 This volume six of the Carlsberg Papyri series contains the edition of a new manuscript with Petese Stories from the Tebtunis temple library dating to the period around 100 AD The Petese Stories is a compilation of seventy stories about the virtues and vices of women The numerous stories were compiled on the orders of the prophet Petese of Heliopolis that they may serve as a literary testament by which he would be remembered Petese was according to literary tradition Plato's Egyptian instructor in astrology The composition seems to have been modeled on the fundamental Myth of the Sun's Eye The overall structural pattern of the text is very similar to the Arabian Nights a frame story forms the introduction as well as the fabric into which the long series of shorter tales are woven Among the stories preserved in the new manuscript one is particularly remarkable in that it is known from a translation by Herodotus the so called Pheros Story

The Prehistoric Archaeology of Jordan Donald O. Henry, 1998 Thirteen papers providing a comprehensive review of Jordanian prehistory from the Lower Paleolithic to the Late Neolithic Many come from recently completed research projects prior to their final publication The Lower Paleolithic Corrairie Copeland The Middle Paleolithic Donald O Henry The Early and Middle Epipaleolithic Brian F

Incestuous and Close-kin Marriage in Ancient Egypt and Persia Paul John Frandsen, 2009 For both ancient Egypt and Iran as a cultural feature incestuous relationships are usually dismissed on the grounds that they are only found as the exception being allowed for royalty as representatives for the divine on earth or that the evidence for such relationships are unreliable Neither view from the perspective of this study is tenable This work examines the evidence for marriage and sexual relations between siblings and between a parent and child in ancient Egypt and pre Islamic Iran The book restricts its examination to incestuous relationships between members of non royal nuclear families and puts forth arguments against the generally held axiom that the prohibition of incest is a universal phenomenon Culture History and Convergent Evolution Huw S. Groucutt, 2020-07-23 This volume brings together diverse contributions from leading archaeologists and paleoanthropologists covering various spatial and temporal periods to distinguish convergent evolution from cultural transmission in order to see if we can discover ancient human populations With a focus on lithic technology the book analyzes ancient materials and cultures to systematically explore the theoretical and physical aspects of culture convergence and populations in human evolution and prehistory The book will be of interest to academics students and researchers in archaeology paleoanthropology genetics and paleontology The book begins by addressing early prehistory discussing the convergent evolution of behaviors and the diverse ecological conditions driving the success of different evolutionary paths Chapters discuss these topics and technology in the context of the Lower Paleolithic Earlier Stone age and Middle Paleolithic Middle Stone Age The book then moves towards a focus on the prehistory of our species over the last 40 000 years Topics covered include the human evolutionary and dispersal consequences of the Middle Upper Paleolithic Transition in Western Eurasia Readers will also learn about the cultural convergences and divergences that occurred during the Terminal Pleistocene and Holocene such as the budding of human societies in the Americas The book concludes by integrating these various perspectives and theories and explores different methods of analysis to link technological developments and cultural convergence

On the Primaeval Ocean Mark Smith, 2002 On the Primaeval Ocean provides an edited text of a series of ancient Egyptian fragments written in Demotic script in the first half of the 2nd century AD on the subject of the origins and nature of the cosmos

Sexual Revolutions Jane Peterson, 2002-09-18 The change from a hunting gathering lifestyle to one dependent upon farming constitutes a truly revolutionary event in the human career Most archaeologists agree that how ancient people organized their work and family groups was crucial to the success of early attempts at farming Yet little serious attention has been paid to the social organization of labor in the prehistoric past This book addresses that lacuna by investigating sexual divisions of labor As a case study Peterson chose the southern Levant of West Asia where the world's first farming societies emerged some 10 000 years ago Shattering long held assumptions about women's work that lead to generalizations about gender roles Peterson shows that gender studies can be both scientific and thoroughly grounded in feminist theory
