Contesting Global Governance Robert O'Brien, 2000-04-20 A rich analysis of the increasingly important engagement between international institutions and global social movements

Development Economics and Policy David Sapsford, John-ren Chen, 1998-08-10 Hans Singer is undoubtedly one of if not the world's major scholars in the field of Development Economics Over the last six decades he has made numerous contributions to the subject both as scholar and practitioner This book contains 27 essays that were prepared for a conference that was held in Innsbruck Austria in May 1996 to celebrate his 85th birthday and represents a major and important overview of issues in development economics from the most eminent scholars in the field

Global Challenges - Local Responses Daniel Fleming, 2006

Cultural Perspectives on Development Vincent Tucker, 2014-06-23 What does cultural analysis have to offer development studies Is culture a new paradigm for the study of development or a minefield of theoretical confusion Can we move beyond notions of global culture and local culture to a more refined notion of cultural processes This collection of articles addresses these issues providing a diversity of approaches Two themes in particular run through the contributions the relationship between culture and political economy and the relationship between local and global processes

Understanding World Order and Structural Change H. Abrahamsson, 2015-12-22 Hans Abrahamsson assesses the current world order and structural change within an historical framework He analyzes the interaction of Pax American and the Bretton Woods system in the postwar period and its impact specifically on the development of Southern Africa The author also proposed an analytical model and a methodological framework for the study of the international political economy and its global and local implications Finally he addresses the circumstances behind the current opportunity for global change and the social forces and political action required in order to seize it

Sir Hans Singer D. Shaw, 2002-06-25 This is the first biography of a world famous pioneering development economist Sir Hans W Singer who is better known throughout the developing world than any other economist living or dead It gives a detailed account of the way in which the twists of fate led him to becoming a leading development economist It contains a thematic synthesis of all his major theoretical and conceptual work and of the many initiatives in which he has been involved to solve the problems of developing countries

Islam, Postmodernism and Other Futures Sohail Inayatullah, Gail Boxwell, 2003-02-20 As one of our most high profile Muslim intellectuals he has also become an increasingly important voice in the media since the events of September 11th 2001 This is the first collection of his writings of one of our most high profile Muslim intellectuals offering a comprehensive introduction to his thought Starting with his analysis of his own position as a British Muslim and a writer it goes on to explore issues of Islam and cultural change education identity post modernism and the future Drawn from a broad range of his work in scholarly journals as well as from his many books on aspects of culture and society it includes his most frequently cited papers and makes an ideal introduction to the immense scope of his work in cultural studies Recueil Des Cours de L'Académie de Droit Européen Academy of European Law,1999-10-13 The Academy of European Law was established by the European University Institute in 1990 and extends the Institute s current programmes into a larger field of interest It has as its main activity the holding of annual Summer Courses in the law of the European Community and the protection of human rights in Europe In addition to General Courses shorter courses are held on subjects of special academic and practical interest in both fields Finally special guest lectures on topical issues are given by policy makers judges and persons who have held or currently hold the highest position in these fields The courses are published in the language in which they were delivered English and French Between Light and Shadow Mac Darrow,2003-03-20 Much has been written on the human rights relevance and impacts of the policies and activities of the World Bank and IMF or International Financial Institutions IFIs However while many of the human rights based critiques of the Bank and Fund purport to link broadly defined reforms with obligations under international human rights law rarely has this been carried out through a rigorous and in depth application of international legal rules governing the proper interpretation of the institutions mandates and rarely have the policy consequences and practical possibilities for human rights integration been explored in any detail These are the principal gaps that the present book aims to fill by reference to a sample of the IFIs most important and controversial contemporary activities Multidisciplinary Approach in Research Area (Volume-9) Chief Editor- Biplab Auddya, Editor- Dr.M.Muthulakshmi, Viswaraju Udayabhaskar, Dr. Devimeenakshi.k., Dr. Haribhau Mahipati Borate, Ms.Saswati Jena, V Geetha,2024-04-17 Gender and the Political Economy of Development Shirin M. Rai,2013-05-28 Rai subjects the projects of both national development and globalization to searching scrutiny through a gender lens Her emphasis on the intersection of gender and other forms of inequality is very timely An excellent text for a wide range of courses in politics sociology and development studies Diane Elson University of Essex Shirin Rai pushes us to rethink development She brings us to ear a feminist analysis that grows out of her nuanced understanding of both China s and India s gendered experience Readers will find fresh ideas and sharp caveats about how patriarchy is sustained and fought over globally Cynthia Enloe Clark University This important book ranges across contemporary debates in the study of gender and political economy It situates differing gender based theories in the context of wider political and historical processes such as colonialism post colonialism Cold War politics the New World Order globalization and democratization Shirin Rai focuses on the gendered nature of the political economy of development and the shifts that have occurred as economies and states have moved from a development process that is state focused to one that is clearly framed by globalization Differences between men and women and differences between women in contrasting social and geographical positions are explored in relation to their influence on political practice Rai considers how the structures of economic and political power frame men and women and examines the consequences of these gendered positionings She makes important connections between the political narratives of different levels of governance and examines the discourse of empowerment at these different levels The book concludes by reflecting on the way men and women are coping with the challenges of globalization and argues that women s movements need to re establish the link between the recognition of difference and the redistribution of economic and social resources if they are to maintain their radical edge This will be essential reading for undergraduates and graduates in politics development studies and gender studies Inequality, Globalization, and World Politics Andrew Hurrell, Ngaire Woods, 1999 This text suggests that globalization is creating urgent problems for states and international institutions to deal with and that these organisations are increasingly unsuitable for handling such problems

International Human Rights Monitoring Mechanisms Gudmundur Alfredsson, Jonas Grimheden, Bertrand G. Ramcharan, Alfred Zayas, 2009-08-18 This revised and updated collection is intended to serve as a thematic textbook on the institutions and procedures devoted to the national implementation of human rights and to the international monitoring of State performance Albeit not exhaustive the coverage extends to most of the monitoring instances available at intergovernmental and non governmental organizations complaints fact finding and investigative procedures State reporting obligations good offices actions dialogue functions human rights education dissemination of human rights information letter campaigns and technical co operation The target audience of the book is students of international human rights law but the book can also serve as a guide for both officials and activists involved in the realization of human rights The success of the first edition has allowed for this second edition It demonstrates that there is a important demand for literature with a focus on human rights monitoring and follow up activities

Dinosaurs or Dynamos Helge Ole Bergesen, Leiv Lunde, 2013-11-05 Explores how much and what the World Bank and the United Nations can really be expected to achieve The text begins with a detailed account of the evolution of the two organizations as multilateral development institutions and then focuses on the functions that the World Bank and the UN carry out and the governing structures that underlie their activities The authors then go on to question what need there is for these two multilateral institutions in the next century and which tasks they can undertake in promoting world development Both the United Nations UN and the World Bank have repeatedly proclaimed their solemn ambitions to improve the lot of humankind Dinosaurs or Dynamos explores how much and what they can really be expected to do Both have extended their functions far beyond their original mandates while their decision making structures have remained basically unaltered despite recent adaptations on the part of the World Bank Such expansions have created serious strains on both organizations The UN has ambitions to perform tasks such as the search for good governance and sustainable development for which it is ill equipped The World Bank has taken on normative functions the premier development institution that are incompatible with its traditional structures The authors ask what need is there for these two multilateral development institutions in the next century Which tasks in promoting world development can they undertake that others cannot To whom are these institutions politically accountable who sets their agendas and are they credible given financial constraints Dinosaurs or Dynamos is an essential guide for those working within the international community non governmental organizations governments and students of development economics politics and international relations Critical Development Theory Ronaldo Munck, Denis

O'Hearn, 1999-03 In the late 20th century there has been a rethinking of the whole concept of development including a growing awareness of its gender cultural and environmental dimensions and the impact of globalization The contributors to this volume seek to extend these debates to a more fundamental level tackling such issues as the crisis of development as an intellectual and practical project the need for a break with development as a Eurocentric concept and the viability of alternative non Western forms of development The contributors aim to transcend critiques of development which simply engage in a blanket dismissal of the whole enterprise and instead offer ways of re engaging with reality that despite globalization is still a dimension of the late 20th century Democracy and Development R.C. Bhardwaj, K.

Vijayakrishnan, 2018-10-26 Published in 1998 The question of whether democracy and development are allies or adversaries has long been debated and with the triumph of the democratic spirit worldwide the relationship between democracy and development has once again come to attract much attention globally The collapse of the Soviet Union and the developments in Eastern Europe led to considerable rethinking in political circles on the efficacy of the economic policies pursued in those countries and the long term viability of political systems prevalent there Elsewhere several newly industrialized countries are striving to consolidate their gains though there are differing perceptions of whether their politics conform to the classical framework of democracy or not In a remarkable turn around some other countries have initiated measures for economic reforms and structural adjustment setting aside their earlier approaches towards economic management In short the last decades of this millennium have witnessed meaningful efforts worldwide on forging a new partnership between democracy and development In February 1996 the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association jointly organized a conference entitled Parliamentary Democracy and Development Allies or Adversaries with the Wilton Park an international agency of the British Commonwealth and Foreign Office in Wilton House West Sussex United Kingdom The week long conference brought together parliamentarians diplomats administrators political scientists economists and specialists from all over the world The participants shared their views and experiences on diverse aspects of the main theme This publication presents an essentially parliamentary perspective on the correlation between democracy and development based on the discussions at the Wilton Park conference and in the light of current thinking on the subject matter Higher Education in the Twenty-First Century Abdulla Y. Al-Hawaj, Wajeeh Elali, E.H. Twizell, 2008-08-04 The skills creativity and research developed through higher education are major factors in any society's success in creating jobs and advancing prosperity Universities and colleges play a vital role in expanding opportunity and promoting social justice The papers in this book reflect the main objective of a conference held in June 2007 at Ahlia

King Sugar Michele Harrison, 2001-08 What is life like on a sugar plantation at the end of the twentieth century What will happen if the sugar industry collapses How do the poverty stricken cane cutters of rural Jamaica fit into the global economy And how does sugar make its way from the canefield to our kitchens The Caribbean's history is inseparable from sugar In Jamaica entire communities depend on the sugar industry earning a precarious living on old fashioned plantations For many the crop even doubles as currency But as the advanced nations reassess the economic policies that keep sugar alive time is running out for the island's industry King Sugar looks at the world sugar business identifying the key players producers markets and transnational companies and explaining how the industry works It explores the economics and politics of trading agreements the mysteries of the futures market and the technology of sugar production Based on interviews with traders buyers and producers it provides a unique look at the history of this commodity King Sugar also looks in detail at how ordinary people fit into this global industry Through interviews with workers on a plantation she provides a vivid picture of producers and the crises they face The book finally assesses the future of sugar both in Jamaica and the wider world and considers the options for those still ruled by King Sugar

Development Jo Marie Griesgraber, Bernhard G.
