Christianity and Judaism, 2000 Isaiah in Context Michaël van der Meer, Percy van Keulen, Willem Th. van Peursen, Bas Ter Haar Romeny, 2010-05-31 The present volume contains a collection of essays on the Book of Isaiah offered as a tribute to Arie van der Kooij on the occasion of his sixty fifth birthday which coincides with his retirement as Professor of Old Testament at Leiden University The twenty four contributions written by leading scholars in the field of Old Testament studies focus on the Book of Isaiah within the context of Hebrew and ancient near eastern writings particularly those from the Neo Assyrian period as well as on the book s reception history particularly in its Greek and Syriac translations Together these studies offer a rich and original contribution to the study of the Book of Isaiah in its Hebrew Aramaic Assyrian Greek Syriac and Dutch contexts

Migration and the Making of Global Christianity Jehu J. Hanciles, 2021-03-16 A magisterial sweep through 1500 years of Christian history with a groundbreaking focus on the missionary role of migrants in its spread Human migration has long been identified as a driving force of historical change Building on this understanding Jehu Hanciles surveys the history of Christianity s global expansion from its origins through 1500 CE to show how migration more than official missionary activity or imperial designs played a vital role in making Christianity the world s largest religion Church history has tended to place a premium on political power and institutional forms thus portraying Christianity as a religion disseminated through official representatives of church and state But as Hanciles illustrates this top down perspective overlooks the multifarious array of social movements cultural processes ordinary experiences and non elite activities and decisions that contribute immensely to religious encounter and exchange Hanciles s socio historical approach to understanding the growth of Christianity as a world religion disrupts the narrative of Western preeminence while honoring and making sense of the diversity of religious expression that has characterized the world Christian movement for two millennia In turning the focus of the story away from powerful empires and heroic missionaries Migration and the Making of Global Christianity instead tells the more truthful story of how every Christian migrant is a vessel for the spread of the Christian faith in our deeply interconnected world

Near Eastern Archaeology Suzanne Richard, 2003 Filling a gap in classroom texts more than 60 essays by major scholars in the field have been gathered to create the most up to date and complete book available on Levantine and Near Eastern archaeology Dictionary of the Ancient Near East Piotr Bienkowski, Alan Millard, 2010-03-09 An authoritative guide to the whole of the cradle of civilization Desert road archaeology in ancient Egypt and beyond Heiko Riemer, 2013-01-01 Proceedings of the 4th International Congress of the Archaeology of the Ancient Near East, 29 March - 3 April 2004, Freie Universität Berlin: The reconstruction of environment : natural resources and human interrelations through time ; art history : visual communication Hartmut Kühne, Rainer Maria Czichon, Florian Janoscha Kreppner, 2008 The Congress hosted 611 registered participants from 38 countries Its aim was to be an international forum for scholars and demands of Near Eastern Archaeology From the four sections of the Congress Vol I 1 The Reconstruction of Environment Natural Resources and Human Interrelation through Time 2 Visual Communication Vol II 3 Social and Cultural Transformation The Archaeology of Transitional Periods and Dark Ages 4 Archaeological Field Reports Excavations Surveys Conservation ISBN 978344705757 8 Together these volumes unite 77 contributions on about 1100 pages They are arranged according to the sections The first three will be introduced by the key lectures which were given by Tony Wilkinson Winfried Orthmann and Roger Matthews The resumes of these sections were provided by Wendy Matthews Dominik Bonatz and Diederik J W Meijer The contributions cover many aspects of the main themes through time from the Neolithic to the Hellenistic Roman period and offer interdisciplinary approaches to complex archaeological problems Biblical Lexicology: Hebrew and Greek Eberhard Bons, Jan Joosten, Regine Hunziker-Rodewald, 2015-07-01 Lexicography together with grammatical studies and textual criticism forms the basis of biblical exegesis Recent decades have seen much progress in this field yet increasing specialization also tends to have the paradoxical effect of turning exegesis into an independent discipline while leaving lexicography to the experts The present volume seeks to renew and intensify the exchange between the study of words and the study of texts This is done in reference to both the Hebrew source text and the earliest Greek translation the Septuagint Questions addressed in the contributions to this volume are how linguistic meaning is effected how it relates to words and how words may be translated into another language in Antiquity and today Etymology semantic fields syntagmatic relations word history neologisms and other subthemes are discussed The main current and prospective projects of biblical lexicology or lexicography are presented thus giving an idea of the state of the art Some of the papers also open up wider perspectives of interpretation
