The background is filled with various elements: a smiling yellow egg with a face, a bird-like yellow egg with a beak, a mechanical gear, and a green cup. Roar Art Collective:

Let's Roar Loudly! We Are Optimistic (Artist collective) Staff, We are optimistic (Group of Artists), 2011 Urban Australia and Post-Punk David Nichols, Sophie Perillo, 2020-02-25 Richard Lowenstein's 1986 masterpiece Dogs in Space was and remains controversial, divisive, compelling and inspirational. Made less than a decade after the events it is based on, using many of the people involved in those events as actors, the film explored Melbourne's postpunk counterculture of share houses, drugs and decadence. Amongst its ensemble cast was Michael Hutchence, one of the biggest music stars of the period, in his acting debut. This book is a collection of essays exploring the place, period and legacy of Dogs in Space by people who were there or who have been affected by this remarkable film. The writers are musicians, actors and artists and also academics in heritage, history, urban planning, gender studies, geography, performance and music. This is an invaluable resource for anyone passionate about Australian film, society, culture, history, heritage, music and art. Billboard, 2012-01-07 In its 114th year, Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand, content and data licensing platform. Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music, video, gaming, media, digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends. Art & Text, 1984 The New McCulloch's Encyclopedia of Australian Art Alan McCulloch, Susan McCulloch, Emily McCulloch Childs, 2006 Widely regarded as the authoritative reference on Australian art, with its extensive colour plates and 4500 entries. Fully illustrated with more than 700 images on 1200 pages. Entries include Aboriginal art, Abstractionism, art links, sculptors, photographers, craft workers and printmakers and much more. The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art Sanne Krogh Groth, Holger Schulze, 2020-02-20 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sound Art explores and delineates what Sound Art is in the 21st century. Sound artworks today embody the contemporary and transcultural trends towards the post-apocalyptic, a wide sensorial spectrum of sonic imaginaries as well as the decolonization and deinstitutionalization around the making of sound. Within the areas of musicology, art history and later sound studies, Sound Art has evolved at least since the 1980s into a turbulent field of academic critique and aesthetic analysis. Summoning artists, researchers, curators and critics, this volume takes note of and reflects the most recent shifts and drifts in Sound Art, rooted in sonic histories and implying future trajectories. Peripheral Vision Charles Green, 1995 Peripheral Vision: Contemporary Australian Art 1970-1994 is an introduction to the ideas current in Australian art from the 1970s onwards, providing a summary of issues that are still in flux. The broad narrative of recent visual practice is mapped, illuminated by discussions of individual artists and of the events, galleries, writers and international debates that have played a significant part in the development of recent Australian art. The progressive Australian art of the 1970s, often deliberately ephemeral and confrontational in nature and as a result often neglected in art museums and histories, is reappraised. The 1970s work of artists such as Mike Parr, Bonita Ely, Aleks Danko, Domenico de Clario, Vivienne Binns and Robert Rooney provides the background against which subsequent developments are discussed. In the ensuing decades, a diversity of styles

media and ideas have flourished coexisting to create the stimulating and complex Australian art scene of today As they did in the 1970s theoretical writings continue to play a large part in raising and elaborating the issues taken up by artists The relevance of postmodern and postcolonial ideas within an Australian context is discussed with reference to local artists including Imants Tillers Juan Davila Susan Norrie Narelle Jubelin Tim Johnson and Pansy Napangati Peripheral Vision steers the reader through the fascinating field of recent Australian art with detailed description and analysis of works including paintings photography performances and installations
