Rob Birza:

Rob Birza Rob Birza, 1997 Cold fusion Rob Birza, Rudi Fuchs, 2000 Born in 1961 Rob Birza is one of the most lauded contemporary Dutch artists when he first rose to prominence in the early 90s he was hailed as the very salvation of Dutch painting In fact his oeuvre ranges across painting sculpture video and installation work drawing freely on different styles and genres throughout the history of Western and non Western art and mass culture Loaded with reference and erudition Birza's work rewards scrutiny and is well served by this superb volume Carnegie International, 1995 Present Tanja Karreman, Janine Schulze, 2007 Beauty in Architecture Nele De Raedt, Maarten Delbeke, 2025-09-18 Beauty in Architecture brings together the views of architects artists critics historians and philosophers to explore how beauty can again become an integral part of discussions about architecture Despite its recent resurgence in the public debate about the built environment the notion of beauty remains problematic and contested in critical discourse about architecture When the topic is addressed it is either treated with suspicion historicized or contextualised or substituted with other often equally problematic terms such as order legibility atmosphere or character This collection brings together voices from theory scholarship and practice to show that a conversation about beauty in architecture is necessary not only because the general public speaks easily and frequently about beauty in architecture but also because much can be gained from taking it seriously Bringing together a diverse range of perspectives the essays reflect on the themes categories and concepts that should be part of such a conversation and show how talking about beauty engages important reflections on its ontology and what it involves values communities collectives and shared histories environment identity and political or legal mechanisms and institutions A must read for designers and theorists alike this volume allows readers to discover new strategies and concepts to foster the discussion of beauty in architecture Rob Birza Leontine Coelewij, 1998 Breaking Resemblance Alena Alexandrova, 2017-05-01 In recent decades curators and artists have shown a distinct interest in religion its different traditions manifestations in public life gestures and images Breaking Resemblance explores the complex relationship between contemporary art and religion by focusing on the ways artists re work religious motifs as a means to reflect critically on our desire to believe in images on the history of seeing them and on their double power iconic and political It discusses a number of exhibitions that take religion as their central theme and a selection of works by Bill Viola Lawrence Malstaf Victoria Reynolds and Berlinde de Bruyckere all of whom in their respective ways and media recycle religious motifs and iconography and whose works resonate with or problematize the motif of the true image THIS BABY DOLL WILL BE A JUNKIE Ulrike Möntmann, 2017-11-20 As the portrait of a fringe group this book invites the reader to engage with the phenomenon of outcasts it orders the rich material which has grown out of numerous projects of artistic research with female drug users in European prisons and therapy institutions and sets it into context In this way the conditions which have become structurally embedded in social processes are laid open and made perceptible as a matter of public concern The biographical and artistic work with the inmates the correspondence the interventions in the isolated public and cultural sphere the minutes reflections and results of the interdisciplinary exchange with scientists are comprehensively documented and illustrated

Wayfinding, Consumption, and Air Terminal Design Menno Hubregtse, 2020-02-20 This book investigates how international air terminals organize passenger movement and generate spending It offers a new understanding of how their architecture and artworks operate visually to guide people through the space and affect their behaviour Menno Hubregtse's research draws upon numerous airport visits and interviews with architects and planners as well as documents and articles that address these terminals development construction and renovations The book establishes the main concerns of architects with respect to wayfinding strategies and analyzes how air terminal architecture artworks and interior design contribute to the airport's operations The book will be of interest to art historians architectural historians practising architects urban planners airport specialists and geographers

The Archive of Development, 1998 In the current debate on art thought on time has commanded a prominent position Do we live in a posthistorical time Has objective art historical time and belief in a continual progress shifted to a more subjective experience of the ephemeral Has art history fallen away and if so what does this mean for the future of art How does a visual archive relate to artistic memory This volume investigates positions arguments and comments regarding the stated theme Philosophers and theorists explore the subject matter theoretically Curators articulate the practice of art The participants are Hans Belting Jan Bor Peter Brger Bart Cassiman Leontine Coelewij Hubert Damisch Arthur C Danto Bart De Baere Okwui Enwezor Kasper König Sven Lüticken Manifesta Barbara VanderLinden Hans Ulrich Obrist Donald Preziosi Survival of the Past Project Herman Parret Lex Ter Braak Camiel Van Winkel Ernst Van Alphen Kirk Varnedoe Gianni Vattimo and Kees Vuyk
