never has there been a chronology of the writer's life and times as comprehensive, detailed and useful as The Hemingway Log. For more than a dozen years Brewster Chamberlin has been compiling and wonderfully annotating and continuously updating what amounts to almost a daybook calendar of Hemingway's life as author Paul Hendrickson noted in his acclaimed Hemingway's Boat: Everything He Loved in Life and Lost. At long last available to readers and scholars, this chronology extends from the birth of Mark Twain whose Huckleberry Finn Hemingway said was the source of all modern American literature to the 2013 publication of the second volume of a projected seventeen of the Hemingway letters. Throughout the events and dates that had any influence whatsoever on the writer are detailed day by day: Who won the Nobel Prize in literature each year for instance or the Pulitzer; What works of poetry, fiction or drama were published; What was happening in the world and in the country and how did it relate to Hemingway. Within this clarifying context, the chronological facts of the writer's own life and work unfold: literary production and publishing, travels and households, activities and relevant occurrences, relations with family, friends, lovers and enemies. Drawing on biographies, memoirs and various Hemingway collections and websites as well as the full range of original sources such as letters, fishing logs, notebooks and manuscripts, The Hemingway Log presents the most extensive and accurate chronology of Hemingway's life and times and in the process clears up many of the inconsistencies and factual errors that riddle accounts of the writer's life and work. Any future scholar of Hemingway will find the book not just invaluable but absolutely necessary and any serious reader of Hemingway will find it irresistible.

The Architecture of Address Jake Adam York, 2004-05 The Architecture of Address traces the evolution of an American species of lyric capable of public pronouncement without polemic. Beginning with Whitman, Jake Adam York seeks to describe a kind of poem wherein the most ambitious poets including Hart Crane and Robert Lowell occupy and reconstruct important public spaces. This study argues that American poets become civic actors when their poems imagine and reconstruct the conceptual architecture of the monument.

Why Not Say What Happened? Ivana Lowell, 2010-10-19 An astonishing and at times outright comic memoir that marks the brilliant debut of a writer raised in a creative bohemian household characterized by extreme privilege tinged with neglect. Born into one of the most celebrated Anglo-Irish families, the Guinnesses, Ivana Lowell tells a stunning story of coming to terms with her blue blood heritage and her own childhood traumas. It is also the story of her intense relationship with her formidably intelligent and complicated mother, the writer Caroline Blackwood. A keen observer with an incisive eye, a wicked sense of humor and no self-pity, Lowell sets a wide range of scenes with a truly unexpected, almost madcap cast of characters, introducing us to such eccentric figures as her maternal grandmother, Maureen, the Marchioness of Dufferin, and Ava. She takes us from the marchioness's annual ball for her idol and old friend, the Queen Mother, to Maureen's stately Irish home, Clandeboyne, where the marchioness hopes to die, to summers in Dufferin's villa in Sardinia, through moves to carelessly furnished, drafty, too large English country houses with her mother and stepfather, the poet Robert Lowell, to working in Manhattan at Miramax Books for Harvey Weinstein and a trip with his brother Bob to the Academy Awards to her wedding at New York's Rainbow Room and finally to a life with her daughter Ivana also has darker stories to tell including her own stints in rehab and discovering after her mother's death the secret Lady Caroline had successfully kept from her Why Not Say What Happened introduces a dazzling new literary voice and the fascinating story of a tragic and remarkable family Biographical Books, 1950-1980 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1980 The Last Perfect American Charlene Dixon-Anthony, 2014-07-11 This is a book about a man of war and we are all born to die It tells how a man chose to live until he died And this is a book about a man whom I deeply love who has shown me the terrible facing of death that is military Thank God he is still alive but I live everyday as a woman who loves a man who is closer to God eternity and his past than he is to me This is a book of one warrior who speaks for all warriors who don't speak about their experiences of war From 15 years of age to eighty seven years of age Jack forgot himself to serve his country He was a body guard to three U S Presidents who chose him because they knew he would surrender his life to protect them Jack generously although unwillingly expressed his war experiences Men of war hide violence Jack has expressed this to me I am grateful to be his wife and a woman that he loves I am fortunate to be able to give this gift of Jack's privacy to the world
