Rolling The Elephant Over How To Effect Large Scale Change In The Reporting Process:

Rolling the Elephant Over Pamela Brown Clarridge, Elizabeth M. Whitaker, 1997 Clarridge and Whitaker's challenge was to coordinate the design and implementation of a new elementary progress report that would provide not only a more consistent and equitable measure of student progress across an extremely diverse district but also promote better communication among parents, students, and teachers. Multifaceted Assessment for Early Childhood Education Robert J. Wright, 2010 Multifaceted Assessment in Early Childhood is ideal for those on upper division undergraduate courses and first level graduate courses in early childhood education assessment. The book covers the various measures used in a range of assessment dimensions and includes valuable information regarding young children with special needs and English Language Learners which has rarely been touched upon in other textbooks. The chapters are focused on student accessibility and include practical applications of key concepts. Features and benefits: Covers a range of assessment concepts including Formative uses feedback from learning to adapt teaching Summative i.e. tests quizzes Authentic focuses on complex deeper tasks Standardized STAR SAT Includes coverage of assessment for English language learners and children with special needs topics that are not provided enough coverage in other books including Wortham McAfee Puckett and Mindes Wright's writing style grabs and engages the reader in the topic Two of our reviewers who use Wortham specifically cited Wright's writing style as a reason they would adopt our book A McAfee reviewer is likely to switch for the same reason Educational Assessment Robert J. Wright, 2008 Educational Tests and Measurements in the Age of Accountability is a core text for use in a first level graduate course in educational measurement and testing. In addition to covering the topics traditionally found in core textbooks for this course, this text also provides coverage of contemporary topics including national testing programs, international achievement comparisons, the value added assessment of schools and teachers, and the public policy debate on selective admissions vs affirmative minority enrollment. Introduction to School Counseling Robert J. Wright, 2011-02-15 A practical guide that helps readers meet the challenges they'll face as professional school counselors. This comprehensive graduate level text prepares readers to handle the problems and responsibilities they'll face as professional school counselors, preschool through high school. It covers a wide range of topics in depth, including effective interventions for racism and bullying, the continuing score gap between ethnic groups, a school counselor's leadership role in implementing school based action research, a model for advocating on behalf of and providing services to children with disabilities. The book is packed with real life examples and case descriptions; it provides strategies for preventing and responding to social and emotional problems, improving educational outcomes, and helping children score at optimum levels on high stakes tests. The Principalship from A to Z Ronald D. Williamson, Barbara R. Blackburn, 2009 Like the other books in the A-Z series, this book provides practical tools and activities that can be used immediately to improve your practice. This guide offers specific strategies that will help you become a more effective principal. There are 26 chapters in this book, one
