addition to the canon of historical literature      Union with Rome Christopher Wordsworth,1866      ,      The Ancient World in Alternative History and Counterfactual Fictions Alberto J. Quiroga Puertas,Leire Olabarria,2024-08-22 Focusing in turn on history powerful individuals under represented voices and the arts the essays in this collection cover a wide variety of modern and contemporary narrative fiction from Jo Walton and L Sprague De Camp to T S Chaudhry and Catherynne M Valente Chapters look into the question of chance versus determinism in the unfolding of historical events the role individuals play in shaping a society or occasion and the way art and literature symbolise important messages in counterfactual histories They also show how uchronic narratives can take advantage of modern literary techniques to reveal new and relevant aspects of the past giving voices to marginalised minorities and suppressed individuals of the ancient world Counterfactual fiction and uchronic narratives have been largely up until now the domain of literary critics However these modes of literature are here analysed by scholars of Ancient History Egyptology and Classics shedding important new light on how cultures of the ancient world have been and still are perceived and to what extent our conceptions of the past are used to explore alternate presents and futures Alternate history entices the imagination of the public by suggesting hypothetical scenarios that never occurred underlining a latent tension between reality and imagination and between determinism and contingency This interest has resulted in a growing number of publications that gauge the impact of what if narratives and this one is the first to give scholars of the ancient world centre stage      A Struggle for Rome Felix Dahn,2018-03-10 Felix Dahn was a nineteenth century German Professor of Jurisprudence as well as a historian novelist and poet who was greatly admired by his academic contemporaries for his grasp of the historical detail of the periods about which he wrote He has been well served by this magisterial translation which at last makes this astonishingly rich novel available to the modern English reader This is a story perhaps the story of the clash between two great civilizations of the sixth century of the Common Era when the Roman Empire had crumbled into dust the struggle for Rome and for Italy between the Eastern Roman Empire of Byzantium ruled by Justinian and the Gothic warrior tribes who had captured Italy under their legendary king Theodoric We see this epoch through the eyes of different personalities at the centre of these events which shook the world as they knew it most are historical figures and some are imaginary but typical Justinian and his beautiful and scheming wife Theodora the great commander Belisarius immortalised by Robert Graves Totila and Teias two Gothic kings one as bold and bright as the sun and the other as black as night and Cethegus the Prefect of Rome and the last of the Romans whose cold and calculating nature runs through the book like a steel thread who will stop at nothing to regain the ancient city and who in the end fails and redeems his many crimes with a hero s death Firmly based on historical fact and contemporary sources A Struggle for Rome is one of the great historical novels of the world      Union with Rome Christopher Wordsworth,2022-01-18 Reprint of the original first published in 1866      All Roads Lead to Rome Hank Davis,David Afsharirad,2025-06-03 CLASSIC SF STORIES FOR ANYONE THINKING ABOUT THE ROMAN EMPIRE

Ancient Greece and Rome in Modern Science Fiction Ross Clare, 2022-11-24 Ancient Greece and Rome in Modern Science Fiction introduces and analyses the reception of classical antiquity in contemporary science fiction By using up to date methods from classical reception theory science fiction analysis and fictional world studies the book will help furnish the reader's understanding of the ways in which the literature culture history and mythology of ancient Greece and Rome are appropriated and represented across multiple media platforms in the science fiction genre today The book will therefore serve as an entry point into several areas of study the reception of classics in popular culture antiquity in modern media the uses of the ancient world in science fiction and broader science fiction criticism The chapters structured by medium principally offer a roughly chronological overview of that medium and its treatment of ancient history mythology literature and culture An abundance of case studies from literature film and television and videogames including Star Trek Battlestar Galactica Fallout New Vegas the Mass Effect franchise and Assassin's Creed show how classical antiquity is reused encountered re encountered by creators and consumers of the present how we bounce off it and it bounces off us and how this reciprocation creates new visions of Greece and of Rome Rome Seen in a Week, Being a Hand-book to Rome and Its Environs ... Luigi Piale, 1898 Studia patristica, 1966 Papers presented to the International Conference on Patristic Studies 2d 1955 Papi in Posa Aa.Vv., 2013-09-21T00:00:00+02:00 The exhibition entitled Papi in Posa i.e. Papal Portraiture with the highly refined and historically significant Braschi Palace home of the Museum of Rome in 2004 and now in Washington The John Paul II Center is not offered only as an excellent exposition of masterpieces from major international museums such as the Vatican Museums and prestigious private collections but stands out in particular because it is one of the most important expositions of portrait painting ever because of both the outstanding quality and the considerable number of paintings and sculptures offered executed by Europe's leading artists from the last five centuries and the great spiritual and social significance of the personages portrayed the greatest Pontiffs who from the 16th century to the present have sat in the Chair of Saint Peter It is suggestive to observe as we scan the unique artistic itinerary offered by the curators of the exhibition how through the succession of historical periods and particularly by virtue of the esthetic verve and inner sensitivity of the artists the description of the human person was oriented with extreme plastic ductility and acuity in their perception of their subjects physiognomy to represent not only the body lines of the subject being depicted but in particular the most intimate traits of the heart the lively mobility of their thought the innermost lines of the subject's character in an intense dialogue of chiaroscuro observations from which the characterizing notes of complex personages are evinced persons who appear completely clear and evident only to those who are capable of sublimating their outward appearance into an acute observation From this prestigious gallery of portraits it emerges unmistakably how the anthropocentric path of human thought has manifestly reverberated within the bounds of the figurative arts through a progressive contextualization which sees the subject represented unbound through a metatemporal aura of rarefied abstraction and placed naturalistically in a precise and well defined spatiotemporal sphere At the same time we witness a gradual definition of the personage portrayed as the bearer of a clear personal connotation the self and the identity which seem to be invisible and thus impossible to represent no longer hortatively as an idealized and metaphoric emblem of absolute values in deference to a markedly ethical and pedagogical conception The exhibited works which rightfully range themselves among the most outstanding expressions of portraiture reveal a deep spiritual harmony evocative of beauty and unleash a lively dialogue with the onlooker based on a real and inherent economy of the act of viewing albeit freed from the exercise of a psychologism oriented toward uncontrollable wanderings The reception of the meaning of the formal systems thoughtful poses and attitudes involves to be sure the active presence of the spectator in a sort of visual dialogue with the portrait that is not considered exclusively as a fixed commemorative system but rather as an interactive structure In the perspective of the reception the observer becomes a fundamental element for the construction of the meaning of the image that from this very private perspective undergoes obvious momentous transformations Observer and image thus become integral parts of a fascinating system of visual exchange not unlike the mechanisms of verbal dialogue both members of the pair take on contemporaneously the dual role of subject object restructuring the complex relational web established in a rapport between an I and a you Beyond the temporal contingencies each portrait is recounted and seduces us through the universal language of fame this incarnates deeply the artist's attempt to describe the personality of the subjects portrayed consigning the multiform essence of their nature to one attitude or to a single expression by resorting to a refined psychological introspection in an attempt to render visually the subject's inner world It is owing to the above considerations that while I applaud the felicitous initiative of giving life to such a culturally transcendent exhibition I would wish that all those who will have the pleasure of visiting it or at least of perusing the pages of this catalogue will be able to perceive the portraits of the individual popes not as so many freestanding elements but rather as integrated parts of a related set of men who albeit struggling with the many and varied anxieties of everyday life endeavored to serve Christ among their brothers each one with a clear perception of himself as servo servorum Dei the servant of God's servants Through looks attitudes and symbols committed by the artist in a well constructed iconographic
