Romance languages have been known as such to the linguistic community since the pioneering studies of Ascoli and Gartner over a century ago There has never been a community of RR speakers based on a common history or polity and the various dialects are mutually unintelligible but a unity based on a number of common features has been advanced This book is the first general description of the Rhaeto Romance languages to be written in English It provides a critical examination of the phonology morphology lexicon and syntax of the modern Rhaeto Romance dialects within the broader perspective of

Romance comparative linguistics King Husain and the Kingdom of Hejaz Randall Baker,1979 Approaches to Grammaticalization Elizabeth Closs Traugott,Bernd Heine,1991-01-01 The study of grammaticalization raises a number of fundamental theoretical issues pertaining to the relation of langue and parole creativity and automatic coding synchrony and diachrony categoriality and continua typological characteristics and language specific forms etc and therefore challenges some of the basic tenets of twentieth century linguistics This two volume work presents a number of diverse theoretical viewpoints on grammaticalization and gives insights into the genesis development and organization of grammatical categories in a number of language world wide with particular attention to morphosyntactic and semantic pragmatic issues The papers in Volume I are divided into two sections the first concerned with general method and the second with issues of directionality Those in Volume II are divided into five sections verbal structure argument structure subordination modality and multiple paths of grammaticalization Report on a Journey to Riyadh in Central Arabia, 1865 Sir Lewis Pelly,1866

A Doctor in Saudi Arabia G. E. Moloney, The Aeolian Islands Philip Ward,1974 Discover Lipari Vulcano Salina Stromboli Filicudi Alicudi and Panarea Everyone has his own Italy the Rome of Bernini and the Colosseum the beaches of Rimini or Cattolica the slimy canals and aristocratic palaces of decaying Venice or the small towns encountered as if by sheer inspiration Anagni Bevagna Pienza Palestrina Monselice Erice My Italy is rocky Perugia of the windy winters magnificent Florence whose streets are paved with sculpture and something more than a handful of infinitesimal volcanic peaks rising like greeny brown icebergs from the Tyrrhenian sea north of Sicily This is not the Sicily one reads of in Pirandello or Verga the Catania of Capuana or Martoglio the Syracuse of Vittorini the Palermo recorded by Lampedusa and discovered again teeming and afraid by the saintly Danilo Dolci It is not the Sicily that Plato knew Civilization brought Lipari and her sisters some neolithic villages shipwrecks of course without number a great citadel a few nondescript churches and simple houses

Otherwise the Aeolians are timeless Their scale is geological rather than historical and the spitting fiery Stromboli is their symbol With an unerring sense of the dramatic Jules Verne chose Stromboli for the climax to his Journey to the Centre of the Earth I have kept the dialogue to a minimum not because talk isn't important to an Aeolian not one I met would read or write rather than talk but because straightforward translations miss the range of modulation and intonation on which a Sicilian prides himself and because any reported conversation with Italians necessarily lacks the accompanying vocabulary and gesture and facial contortion If you haven't listened to a Sicilian argument I can't do it for you If you have you'll never forget it anyway and will easily imagine whatever I omit PHILIP WARD Part of the Oleander Classics series this 1973 title has been reproduced using the highest quality modern scanning technology in order to keep this and other important works from the Press's 50 year history from going out of print In this way the invaluable resources provided by books in the series remain available for general readers academics and other interested parties

The Other Italy Hermann W. Haller,1999-01-01 Italy possesses two literary canons one in the Tuscan language and the other made up of the various dialects of its many regions The Other Italy presents for the first time an overview of the principal authors and texts of Italy's literary canon in dialect It highlights the cultivated dialect poetry drama and narrative prose since the codification of the Tuscan literary language in the early sixteenth century when writing in dialect became a deliberate and conscious alternative to the official literary standard The book offers a panorama of the literary dialects of Italy over five centuries and across the country's regions shedding light on a profoundly plurilingual and polycentric civilization As a guide to reading and research it provides a compendium of literary sources in dialect arranged by region and accompanied by syntheses of regional traditions with selected textual illustrations A work of extraordinary importance The Other Italy was awarded the Modern Language Association of America's Aldo and Jean Scaglione Publication Award for a Manuscript in Italian Literary Studies It will serve scholars as an indispensable resource book for years to come
