Contesting Chineseness Chang-Yau Hoon, Ying-kit Chan, 2021-03-15 Combining a historical approach of Chineseness and a contemporary perspective on the social construction of Chineseness this book provides comparative insights to understand the contingent complexities of ethnic and social formations in both China and among the Chinese diaspora in Southeast Asia This book focuses on the experiences and practices of these people who as mobile agents are free to embrace or reject being defined as Chinese by moving across borders and reinterpreting their own histories By historicizing the notion of Chineseness at local regional and global levels the book examines intersections of authenticity authority culture identity media power and international relations that support or undermine different instances of Chineseness and its representations It seeks to rescue the present from the past by presenting case studies of contingent encounters that produce the ideas practices and identities that become the categories nations need to justify their existence The dynamic fluid representations of Chineseness illustrate that it has never been an undifferentiated whole in both space and time Through physical movements and inherited knowledge agents of Chineseness have deployed various interpretive strategies to define and represent themselves vis vis the local regional and global in their respective temporal experiences This book will be relevant to students and scholars in Chinese studies and Asian studies more broadly with a focus on identity politics migration popular culture and international relations The Chinese overseas often saw themselves as caught between a rock and a hard place The collection of essays here highlights the variety of experiences in Southeast Asia and China that suggest that the rock can become a huge boulder with sharp edges and the hard places can have deadly spikes A must read for those who wonder whether Chineseness has ever been what it seems Wang Gungwu University Professor National University of Singapore By including reflections on constructions of Chineseness in both China itself and in various Southeast Asian sites the book shows that being Chinese is by no means necessarily intertwined with China as a geopolitical concept while at the same time highlighting the incongruities and tensions in the escapable relationship with China that diasporic Chinese subjects variously embody expressed in a wide range of social phenomena such as language use popular culture architecture and family relations The book is a very welcome addition to the necessary ongoing conversation on Chineseness in the 21st century Ien Ang Distinguished Professor of Cultural Studies Western Sydney University

Fame & Folly Cynthia Ozick, 2011-10-12 From one of America's great literary figures a new collection of essays on eminent writers and their work and on the war between art and life The perilous intersection of writers' lives with public and private dooms is the fertile subject of many of these remarkable essays from such literary giants as T S Eliot Isaac Babel Salman Rushdie and Henry James A genuine literary education Each of these pieces is informed gracefully written and propelled with narrative energy San Francisco Chronicle A glittering new collection Each essay shimmers with intelligence The New York Times

Screen Adaptations and the Politics of Childhood Robyn McCallum, 2018-01-16 This book features a cutting edge approach to the study of film adaptations of literature for children and young people and the narratives about childhood those adaptations enact Historically film media has always had a partiality for the adaptation of classic literary texts for children As economic and cultural commodities McCallum points out how such screen adaptations play a crucial role in the cultural reproduction and transformation of childhood and youth and indeed are a rich resource for the examination of changing cultural values and ideologies particularly around contested narratives of childhood The chapters examine various representations of childhood as shifting states of innocence and wildness liminality marginalisation and invisibility The book

focuses on a range of literary and film genres from classic texts to experimental carnivalesque magical realist and cross cultural texts The Virginia Quarterly Review ,1926 Judy, Or the London Serio-comic Journal ,1883 Creepy #14 Bill Parente,Dan Braun,Matthew Southworth,Peter Bagge,Ray Fawkes,2013-05-08 You can t believe how many things there are to be afraid of First forget black cats Ray Fawkes _Justice League Dark_ and Tomm Coker _Zombie Bomb _ will make you terrified of blackbirds And Matthew Southworth _Stumptown_ takes you further into the dark than you ve ever imagined Better learn to read from behind your fingers Cover story written by Ray Fawkes Tomm Coker and Matthew Southworth slather on the black ink Character Sketches of Romance, Fiction and the Drama Ebenezer Cobham Brewer,2004-03 Originally published in 1892 the object of this Handbook is to supply readers and speakers with a lucid but very brief account of such names as are used in allusions and references whether by poets or prose writers to furnish those who consult it with the plot of popular dramas the story of epic poems and the outline of well known tales The number of dramatic plots sketched out is many hundreds Another striking and interesting feature of the book is the revelation of the source from which dramatists and romancers have derived their stories and the strange repetitions of historic incidents It has been borne in mind throughout that it is not enough to state a fact It must be stated attractively and the character described must be drawn characteristically if the reader is to appreciate it and feel an interest in what he reads This work an American reprint of The Reader s Handbook by E Cobham Brewer while retaining all of the original material that can interest and aid the English speaking student gives also characters and sketches found in American novels poetry and drama Cinefantastique ,2003 Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language Character Sketches of Romance, Fiction and the Drama Ebenezer Cobham Brewer,1892 British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1891 A History of Late Eighteenth Century Drama, 1750-1800 Allardyce Nicoll,1927 A History of English Drama 1660-1900 Allardyce Nicoll,2009-06-25 Nicoll s History which tells the story of English drama from the reopening of the theatres at the time of the Restoration right through to the end of the Victorian period was viewed by Notes and Queries 1952 as a great work of exploration a detailed guide to the untrodden acres of our dramatic history hitherto largely ignored as barren and devoid of interest The Prime Minister of Würtemberg Anne Elizabeth Ellerman,1897
