

“Romance [literature] gets criticized for being repetitive — as if repetition is not the way we nourish our bodies and souls. Meals are repetitive: You have to keep making them and eating them and then making and eating them again. Song lyrics repeat every time a chorus comes back around. And when you love someone you don’t tell them once and then never speak of it again. You tell them over and over, because each iteration of those three words sustains their truth — like fresh water soaking into the roots of a living tree.”

Secrets of the Blessed C. A. Lemaster, 2017-09-27 No one ever promised life had to be fair but does it have to hurt so much Is there any hope that this pain will ever end Wherever Jesus went he was surrounded by a multitude of hurting people folks that needed someone to care about and for them He saw them as harassed scattered sheep in desperate need of a shepherd To each of us he has brought hope for deliverance healing from our sorrows and forgiveness for our sins Whether we investigate the heartbeat of the Psalmists the trials of the patriarchs or the pains of the apostles we find people who faced the abuse life arbitrarily hurls our way These saints found healing through their relationship with their God They wrote fearlessly of their experiences so we might learn from them Secrets of the Blessed takes us on a journey of faith through our pain There is truly hope for a blessed happy life when we learn to believe God even when he seems unfair to us There really are no secrets but there are nuggets of wisdom we can mine from God's Word
