Ross, 2003-06-30 In the first volume of the Artists of an Era series Leslie Ross examines the identities of artists attributed to the most famous and influential works of medieval art These works are much discussed within the realm of art history yet the identities of medieval artists fall victim to incomplete historical records and often remain enigmatic In ten narrative chapters Ross examines this significant area of the art world including architecture iconography metalwork scribework sculpture even medieval art instruction and summarizes the lives and work of that genre's leading artist or artists. Students will learn not only what is factually known of an artist's life as well as what is purely speculative but also the processes used to gather the information and fuel speculation. Readers will also gain unique insights into the practices and traditions of medieval art and the role it played within medieval society. A timeline, chapter bibliographies, a list of further resources on medieval art, and an index offer additional tools to students of medieval art and art history.

Glass, Wax and Metal: Lighting Technologies in Late Antique, Byzantine and Medieval Times Ioannis Moutsianos, Karen S. Garnett, 2019-07-31. This volume provides an extensive look at the technological development of lighting and lighting devices during Late Antiquity and the Middle Ages in Western Europe and Byzantium. 29 papers are gathered from two International Lychnological Association (ILA) Round Tables held in Olten, Switzerland, 2007, and Thessaloniki, Greece, 2011.

Texts and the Self in the Twelfth Century Sarah Spence, 1996-12-12. Texts and the Self in the Twelfth Century analyses key twelfth-century Latin and vernacular texts which articulate a subjective, often autobiographical stance. The contention is that the self forged in medieval literature could not have come into existence without both the gap between Latinity and the vernacular and a shift in perspective towards a visual and spatial orientation. This results in a self which is not an agent that will act on the outside world like the Renaissance self but rather one which inhabits a potential middle ground or space of agency explained here partly in terms of object relations theory.

"The Sculpture of Reform in North Italy, ca 1095-1130" Dorothy F. Glass, 2017-07-05. Entirely original in its methodology, this study offers a fresh approach to the study of Romanesque fae sculpture. Declining to revisit questions of artistic personalities, artistic style, and connoisseurship, Dorothy F. Glass delves instead into the historical and historiographical context for a group of significant monuments erected in Italy between the last decade of the eleventh century and the first third of the twelfth century. In her reading, local culture takes precedence over names; context over connoisseurship. She argues that it was the cultural, intellectual, and religious life of the abbeys of San Benedetto Po and Nonantola that provided the framework for the Reformist ethos of much of the sculpture adorning the cathedral of Modena. Glass argues that the monuments are deeply rooted in the concerns of the reform of the church, more commonly known as the Gregorian Reform; that these reform ideas and ideals were first fomented in monastic communities and then adopted by the new cathedrals built in cities that freed of submission to imperial German rule had recently rejoined the papal fold. The Sculpture of Reform in North Italy, ca 1095-1130 History and Patronage of Romanesque Faes moves scholarship beyond continuously reiterated opinions concerning style, attribution, chronology, origins, and influence, instead opening new and fruitful lines of inquiry into the patronage and historical significance of these extraordinary monuments.

Icons of Irishness from the Middle Ages to the Modern World M. Williams, 2012-12-10. From majestic Celtic crosses to elaborate knotwork designs, visual symbols of Irish identity at its most medieval abound in contemporary culture. Considering both scholarly and popular perspectives, this book offers a commentary on the blending of pasts and presents that finds permanent visualization in these contemporary signs      Romanesque Tomb Effigies Shirin Fozi, 2021-03-12 Framed by evocative inscriptions tumultuous historical events and the ambiguities of Christian death Romanesque tomb effigies were the first large scale figural monuments for the departed in European art In this book Shirin Fozi explores these provocative markers of life and death establishing early tomb figures as a coherent genre that hinged upon histories of failure and frustrated ambition In sharp contrast to later recumbent funerary figures none of the known European tomb effigies made before circa 1180 were commissioned by the people they represented and all of the identifiable examples of these tombs were dedicated to individuals whose legacies were fraught rather than triumphant Fozi draws on this evidence to argue that Romanesque effigies were created to address social rather than individual anxieties they compensated for defeat by converting local losses into an expectation of eternal victory comforting the embarrassed heirs of those whose histories were marked by misfortune and offering compensation for the disappointments of the world Featuring numerous examples and engaging the visual historical and theological contexts that inform them this groundbreaking work adds a fresh dimension to the study of monumental sculpture and the idea of the individual in the northern European Middle Ages It will appeal to scholars of art history and medieval studies      Encyclopedia of Monasticism William M. Johnston, 2013-12-04 The two volume Encyclopedia of Monasticism describes the monastic traditions of both Christianity and Buddhism with more than 600 entries on important monastic figures of all periods and places surveys of countries and localities and topical essays covering a wide range of issues e g art behavior economics liturgy politics theology and scholarship Coverage encompasses not only geography and history worldwide but also the contemporary dilemmas of monastic life Recent upheavals in certain countries are highlighted Korea Russia Sri Lanka etc Topical essays subtitled Christian Perspectives and Buddhist Perspectives explore in imaginative fashion comparisons and contrasts between Christian and Buddhist monasticism Encyclopedia of Monasticism also includes more than 500 color and black and white illustrations covering all aspects of monastic life art and architecture      Irish and Scottish Art, c. 900-1900 Heather Pulliam, Rachel Moss, 2024-11-30 As evidenced by the famed Book of Kells and monumental high crosses Scotland and Ireland have long shared a distinctive artistic tradition The story of how this tradition developed and flourished for another millennium through survival adaptation and revival is less well known Some works were preserved and repaired as relics objects of devotion believed to hold magical powers Respect for the past saw the creation of new artefacts through the assemblage of older parts or the creation of fakes and facsimiles Meanings and values attached to these objects and to places with strong early Christian associations changed over time but their Celtic and or Gaelic character has remained to the forefront of Scottish and Irish national expression Exploring themes of authenticity imitation heritage conservation and nationalism these interdisciplinary essays draw attention to a variety of understudied artworks and illustrate the enduring link that exists between Scottish and Irish cultures      Gothic Song Margot Elsbeth Fassler, 1993-08-19 This is the first study of how a particular genre of liturgical texts and music the Victorine sequences were first written in great numbers during the twelfth century      Life, Death and Representation Jas Elsner, Janet Huskinson, 2010-12-15 This volume presents a collection of essays on different aspects of Roman sarcophagi. These varied approaches will produce fresh insights into a subject which is receiving increased interest in English language scholarship with a new awareness of the important contribution that sarcophagi can make to the study of the social use and production of Roman art. The book will therefore be a timely addition to existing literature. Metropolitan sarcophagi are the main focus of the volume which will cover a wide time range from the first century AD to post classical periods including early Christian sarcophagi and post classical reception. Other papers will look at aspects of viewing and representation, iconography and marble analysis. There will be an Introduction written by the co editors      From Byzantine to Norman Italy Clare Vernon, 2023-01-26 This is the first major study to comprehensively analyze the art and architecture of the archdiocese of Bari and Canosa during the Byzantine period and the upheaval of the Norman conquest. The book places Bari and Canosa in a Mediterranean context, arguing that international connections with the eastern Mediterranean were a continuous thread that shaped art and architecture throughout the Byzantine and Norman eras. Clare Vernon has examined a wide variety of media including architecture, sculpture, metalwork, manuscripts, epigraphy and luxury portable objects as well as patronage to illustrate how cross cultural encounters, the first crusade, slavery and continuities and disruptions in the relationship with Constantinople shaped the visual culture of the archdiocese. From Byzantine to Norman Italy will appeal to students and scholars of Byzantine art, the medieval Mediterranean and the Italo Norman world      Allegory of the Church Calvin Kendall, 2011-11-01 The Allegory of the Church is the first full length study of Romanesque verse inscriptions in the context of church portals and portal sculpture and is the product of a twenty year study      Sculpted Thresholds and the Liturgy of Transformation in Medieval Lombardy Gillian B. Elliott, 2022-06-24 This book explores the issue of ecclesiastical authority in Romanesque sculpture on the portals and other sculpted gateways of churches in the north Italian region of Lombardy. Gillian B. Elliott examines the liturgical connection between the ciborium over the altar, the most sacred threshold inside the church and the sculpted portals that appeared on church exteriors in medieval Lombardy. In cities such as Milan, Civate, Como and Pavia the liturgy of Saint Ambrose was practiced as an alternative to the Roman liturgy and the churches were constructed to respond to the needs of Ambrosian liturgy. Not only do the Romanesque churches in these places correspond stylistically and iconographically but they were also linked politically in an era of intense struggle for ultimate regional authority. The book considers liturgical and artistic links between interior church furnishings and exterior church sculptural programs and also applies new spatial methodologies to the interior and exterior of churches in Lombardy. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, medieval studies, architectural history and religious studies      Edinburgh Critical History of Middle Ages and Renaissance Philosophy LaZella Andrew LaZella, 2020-05-01 Written by a team of leading international scholars, this crucial period of philosophy is examined from the novel perspective of themes and lines of thought which cut across authors disciplines and national boundaries This fresh approach will open up new ways for specialists and students to conceptualise the history of medieval and Renaissance thought within philosophy politics religious studies and literature The essays cover concepts and topics that have become central in the continental tradition They also bring major philosophers Thomas Aquinas Averroes Maimonides and Duns Scotus into conversation with those not usually considered canonical Nicholas of Cusa Marsilius of Padua Gersonides and Moses Almosnino Medieval and Renaissance thought is approached with contemporary continental philosophy in view highlighting the continued richness and relevance of the work from this period
