Stott, Carolyn Nystrom, 1998 Christians Going to Hell Seung-woo Byun, 2020-06-09 Today's churches do not always touch on the subject of hell God does not want anyone to go to hell but if they do not put Him first in their life and do His works one might not end up where they think they are going Pastor Seung Woo Byun explores specific and powerful promises of God that point to heaven and hell Readers are guided through biblical End Time prophecies with special focus on the impending rapture of the true church the bride of Christ Many questions are answered by an overview of the Rapture the Second Resurrection the Antichrist the role of the Jewish people and what one must do to be prepared This must read book will not only reveal where you do not want to go and why but where you do want to go and how to get there through Christ Jesus You will not want to miss the truth about the two worlds that await you when you die The Gospel-Centered Evangelicalism of Alexander Carson John Gill, 2025-07-31 Alexander Carson ca 1776 1844 is primarily remembered by Baptist historians as an apologist for believer's baptism Yet this is a topic that Carson himself would consider secondary What then did Carson consider to be of primary importance The gospel of Jesus Christ as conveyed in the Scriptures The thesis of this study is that Carson's belief in the Bible as a verbally and completely inspired text provided him with an infallible source for his understanding of the gospel as being centered upon the atonement effective through justification by faith alone and the motivation for evangelism Carson's theology is examined in each area through a study of his pertinent works the works written by those with whom he interacted as well as the larger theological social economic and political context surrounding those works Paul's Letter to the Romans and Roman Imperialism Ian E. Rock, 2012-11-07 This book seeks to demonstrate that the Letter to the Romans may be seen as an attempt by a subordinate group to redress actual and potential issues of confrontation with the Empire and to offer hope even in the crisis of facing death Paul demonstrates that it is God's peace and not Rome's peace that is important that loyalty to the exalted Jesus as Lord and to the kingdom of God not Jupiter and Rome leads to salvation that grace flows from Jesus as Christ and Lord and not from the benefactions of the Emperor If the resurrection of Jesus the crucified criminal of the Roman Empire demonstrates God's power over the universe and death the very instrument of Roman control then the Christ believer is encouraged to face suffering and death in the hope of salvation through this power Paul's theology emerges from and is inextricably bound to the politics of his day the Scriptures of his people and to the critical fact that the God who is one and Lord of all is still in charge of the world Romans: Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Daniel Patte, 2018-07-26 In the first of a three volume work Daniel Patte presents three very different critical exegeses of Romans 1 arguing that all are equally legitimate and hermeneutically plausible By expanding upon and respecting the exegeses of many erudite scholars of the last two centuries Patte concludes that three families of vastly different critical interpretations are fully justified traditional philological and epistolary studies rhetorical and sociocultural studies and figurative studies of the coherence of

Paul's teaching arising from a long standing interdisciplinary investigation of many receptions of Romans in light of recent diversification of exegetical methodologies Patte concludes that the interpretation of a scriptural text necessarily involves making a choice among equally legitimate and plausible alternatives and second that this choice is always contextual and ethical When these points are denied by failing to respect the interpretations of others and absolutizing one's interpretation instead of being a scriptural blessing Romans becomes a deadly weapon against others heretics Jews Shoah and many others The result is a threefold commentary of Romans 1 that is unique in its scope and thorough going exegesis
