Romantic Literature in Light of Bakhtin Walter L.

Reed,2014-02-27 Literature and literary criticism throughout the twentieth century are famous for their proclamations of the death of the author the eclipse of character and the nothingness of personality as Borges put it Walter Reed investigates the ideas of personhood developed by one of the most influential literary theorists of the last century Mikhail Bakhtin He finds in Bakhtin a personalism based on the idea of an ongoing dialogue between authors and their heroes in imaginative literature Such a model of inter personality Reed argues allows us to appreciate the rich possibilities of personhood set forth in the earlier nineteenth century period of Romanticism Elaborating a new general theory and providing close readings of classic works of Romantic poetry and fiction Romantic Literature in Light of Bakhtin offers a better understanding of the preoccupation with the individual creative self that lay at the heart of this revolutionary literature that still speaks to readers today advanced scholars pursuing their own research      Assembly and its Other in German Romantic Literature and Thought Robert E. Mottram, Christopher R. Clason, 2022-10-15 This collection of essays turns on a shift in Romantic studies from viewing wholeness as an absolute value to critiquing it as a limiting construction Wholeness and its concomitant sense of harmony rather than a natural given is a construct that was assembled and disassembled theorized and criticized by diverse authors and artists in a wide variety of disciplines and socio historical contexts and instrumentalized for diverse purposes The plurality of these constructions that Goethe's Urpflanze for example is not synonymous with Friedrich Schlegel's universal progressive poetry is but one manifestation of how assembly strives but fails to be absolute The other of assembly referenced in the title suggests two divergent but inseparable tendencies firstly how a construction can take on the appearance of a natural given and secondly how assemblages of wholeness harbor within themselves their own principle of disarticulation These two tendencies underlie the inexhaustible character of Romantic gatherings As a construction passes itself off as nature the natural fails to account for itself as a whole The scope of this volume encompasses the establishment mapping and interrogation of assembly and its other in German Romanticism through interdisciplinary studies on literature aesthetics philosophy drama music synaesthesia mathematics science and exploration List of contributors Beate Allert Frederick Burwick Alexis B Smith Margaret Strair Christina Weiler Joshua Wilner the nineteenth and early twentieth century colonial worlds      Blasphemy and Politics in Romantic Literature Paul Whickman, 2020-06-06 This book argues for the importance of blasphemy in shaping the literature and readership of Percy Bysshe Shelley and of the Romantic period more broadly Not only are perceptions of blasphemy taken to be inextricable from politics this book also argues for blasphemous irreverence as both inspiring and necessitating new poetic creativity The book reveals the intersection of blasphemy censorship and literary property throughout the Long Eighteenth Century attesting to the effect of this connection on Shelley s poetry more specifically Paul Whickman notes how Shelley s perceived blasphemy determined the nature and readership of his published works through censorship and literary piracy Simultaneously Whickman crucially shows that aesthetics content and the printed form of the physical text are interconnected and that Shelley s political and philosophical views manifest themselves in his writing both formally and thematically      Physical Disability in British Romantic Literature Essaka Joshua, 2020-11-12 This book provides new period appropriate concepts for understanding Romantic era physical disability through function and aesthetics      Romantic Literature, Race, and Colonial Encounter P.
