

The background is a Romantic-style landscape painting. It depicts a dense forest with trees in various shades of autumn, including reds, oranges, yellows, and greens. A path or stream winds through the center of the forest. In the upper center, a bright rainbow arches across the sky, which is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall mood is serene and majestic, typical of the American Romanticism movement.

Literature grade 1 5 University of Hamburg Institut f r Anglistik und Amerikanistik course Nathaniel Hawthorne 17 entries in the bibliography language English abstract Edgar Allan Poe 1809 49 is perhaps the best known American Romantic who worked in the so called Gothic mode His poems and stories explore the darker side of the Romantic imagination dealing with the Grotesque the supernatural and the horrifying Poe also rejected the rational and the intellectual in favour of the intuitive and the emotional a dominant characteristic of the Romantic Movement For Nathaniel Hawthorne 1804 64 literature also seemed to depend on the possibility of the Gothic Hence of particular interest to Hawthorne was the nature of evil Like his contemporary Poe Hawthorne also made extensive use of symbols One of Hawthorne s and Poe s distinctive concerns is also that of separating head and heart intellect and soul Hawthorne explored these Romantic ideas and the themes of obsession loss and the impossibility of perfection extensively in his short stories The Artist of the Beautiful and The Birthmark However in Poe s life and works and thus also in Ligeia and Morella the stories to be treated in this analysis love death and loss are indissolubly entwined and serve as the apotheosis of his science and the springboard for his horror Some critics think that Poe was only a marketer of Gothic horror borrowed from the German models popular during his time Hence the pertinent issue in Poe becomes the origins for the terror of the soul In the following it will be analyzed which aspects of American Romanticism are treated in Poe short stories Ligeia and Morella and in Hawthorne s The Artist of the Beautiful and The Birthmark For this reason it is necessary to take a closer look at American Romanticism as a literary movement first
