Romantic Poets

The background of the cover is a Romantic-style landscape painting. It depicts a mountain peak with several dark evergreen trees. On the right side of the peak, a tall, thin wooden cross stands prominently. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, oranges, and greys, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is contemplative and sublime.

Romantic Poets 01 Wordsworth And Cole:

Neoclassical Satire and the Romantic School 1780-1830 Rolf P. Lessenich, 2012 Romanticism was not only heterogeneous and disunited. It also had to face the hostile counter movement of the Enlightenment and Augustan Neoclassicism still going strong at the time of and in the decades following the French Revolution due to support from the ruling Establishment the ancien regime of the Crown and Church of England. Neoclassicists regarded Romanticism as a heteretical amalgam of dissenting new schools which threatened the monopoly of the Classical Tradition. The acrimonious debates in aesthetics and politics were conducted with the traditional strategies of the classical ars disputandi on both sides. Under the duress of the heaviest satirical attacks Romanticism began gradually to see itself as one movement giving rise to the problematic opposition of Classical and Romantic. The construction of this rough divide however was indispensable for the clarification of different positions in the hubbub of conflicting voices and has also proved critical in literary and cultural studies which cannot do without such subsumptions. The Classical Tradition encompassing Christianity emerges as an ongoing event from Greek and Latin antiquity running through to our time.

Catalogue of the Mercantile Library of Brooklyn: N-Z Mercantile Library Association of Brooklyn, 1880 The Symbolic Imagination J. Robert Barth, 2015-03-08 Studying the nature of symbol in Coleridge s work Father Barth shows that it is central to Coleridge s intellectual endeavor in poetry and criticism as well as in philosophy and theology He finds symbol to be an essentially religious reality for Coleridge one that partakes of the nature of a sacrament especially sacrament as an encounter between material and spiritual reality Father Barth notes that eighteenth century poetry was by and large a poetry of metaphor rather than of symbol a poetry of reference rather than of encounter In close readings of the poetry of Wordsworth and Coleridge he shows how they practiced and developed the poetry of symbol Finally analyzing the symbolic imagination the author concludes that it is a phenomenon profoundly linked with the experience of Romanticism itself and with a fundamental change in religious sensibility Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Napier,2022-11-30 This book discusses the intrusion often inadvertent of personal voice into the poetry of landscape in Britain 1700 1807 It argues that strong conventions such as those that inhere in topographical verse of the period invite original poets to overstep those bounds while also shielding them from the repercussions of self expression Working under cover of convention in this manner and because for many of these poets place is tied in significant ways to personal history poets of place may launch unexpected explorations into memory personhood and the workings of consciousness This book thus supplements past largely political readings of landscape poetry turning to questions of self articulation and self expression in order to argue that the autobiographical impulse is a distinctive and innovative feature of much great eighteenth century poetry of place Among the poets under examination are Pope Thomson Duck Gray Goldsmith Crabbe Cowper Smith and Wordsworth The World of the Imagination Eva T.
