It having been frequently stated in print that the book called Lavengro was got up expressly against the popish agitation in the years 1850 51 the author takes this opportunity of saying that the principal part of that book was written in the year 43 that the whole of it was completed before the termination of the year 46 and that it was in the hands of the publisher in the year 48 And here he cannot forbear observing that it was the duty of that publisher to have rebutted a statement which he knew to be a calumny and also to have set the public right on another point dealt with in the Appendix to the present work more especially as he was the proprietor of a review enjoying however undeservedly a certain sale and reputation But take your own part boy For if you don't no one will take it for you With respect to Lavengro the author feels that he has no reason to be ashamed of it In writing that book he did his duty by pointing out to his country people the nonsense which to the greater part of them is as the breath of their nostrils and which if indulged in as it probably will be to the same extent as hitherto will within a very few years bring the land which he most loves beneath a foreign yoke he does not here allude to the yoke of Rome Instead of being ashamed has he not rather cause to be proud of a book which has had the honour of being rancorously abused and execrated by the very people of whom the country has least reason to be proud p iv

One day Cogia Efendy went to a bridal festival The masters of the feast observing his old and coarse apparel paid him no consideration whatever The Cogia saw that he had no chance of notice so going out he hurried to his house and putting on a splendid pelisse returned to the place of festival      The Romany Rye (1857). by George Borrow, 2018-05-14

The Romany Rye is a novel by George Borrow written in 1857 as a sequel to Lavengro 1851 The novel Largely thought to be at least partly autobiographical The Romany Rye follows from Lavengro 1851 The title can be translated from Romany as Gipsy Gentleman Mrs George Borrow wrote on 18 October 1853 to John Murray his publisher saying her husband had completed his work which he proposes to call The Romany Rye A Sequel to Lavengro The story itself follows the journey of a learned young man living with Romanies It is a philosophical adventure story of sorts

George Henry Borrow 5 July 1803 26 July 1881 was an English writer of novels and of travel books based on his own experiences in Europe During his travels he developed a close affinity with the Romani people of Europe who figure prominently in his work His best known books are The Bible in Spain the autobiographical Lavengro and The Romany Rye about his time with the English Romanichal Gypsies Early life Borrow was born at East Dereham Norfolk the son of Army recruiting officer Thomas Borrow 1758 1824 and farmer's daughter Ann Perfrement 1772 1858 His father a lieutenant with the West Norfolk Militia was quartered at the prisoner of war camp at Norman Cross from July 1811 to April 1813 and George spent his ninth and tenth years in the barracks there He was educated at the Royal High School of Edinburgh and

Norwich Grammar School Borrow studied law but languages and literature became his main interests In 1825 Borrow began his first major European journey walking in France and Germany Over the next few years he visited Russia Portugal Spain and Morocco acquainting himself with the people and languages of the various countries he visited After his marriage on 23 April 1840 he settled in Lowestoft Suffolk but continued to travel both inside and outside the UK Borrow in Ireland Having a military father Borrow had a childhood of growing up at different posts In the autumn of 1815 he accompanied the regiment to Clonmel in Ireland There he attended the Protestant Academy where he learned to read Latin and Greek from a nice old clergyman He was also introduced to the Irish language by a fellow student named Murtagh who tutored him in return for a pack of playing cards In keeping with the political friction of the time he learned to sing the glorious tune Croppies Lie Down at the military barracks He was introduced to horsemanship and learned to ride without a saddle The regiment moved to Templemore early in 1816 and George took to ranging around the country on foot and later on horseback After less than a year in Ireland the regiment returned to Norwich With the threat of war having receded the strength of the unit was greatly reduced
