The Pool Group and the Quest for Anthropological Universality Betsy van Schlun, 2016-11-21 Pool was an avant garde group that originated in 1927 in Britain and was active under this name until 1933 The group consisted of the well known modernist poet H D the English writer Bryher and the young Scottish writer and artist Kenneth Macpherson All three were first and foremost writers who at one point discovered film as another modern experimental medium of artistic expression Pool associated with almost all the iconic modernists of their time with Ezra Pound Gertrude Stein Ernest Hemmingway James Joyce Marianne Moore William Carlos Williams T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to name only a few In addition due to their interest in film they were also befriended with such influential filmmakers as Sergei Eisenstein and Georg Wilhelm Pabst and became closely associated with Weimar Berlin film culture Pool unites classical Modernism and modernity two directions that are usually considered to be contradictory The Pool phenomenon opens a new perspective onto Gay Novels of Britain, Ireland and the Commonwealth, 1881-1981 Drew E. Wayne Gunn, 2014-10-27 While American gay fiction has received considerable scholarly attention, little has been given to developments in other English-speaking countries. This survey catalogs 254 novels and novellas by some 173 British, Irish, and Commonwealth authors in which gay and bisexual male characters play a major role. Arranged chronologically from the appearance of the first gay protagonist in 1881 to works from the onset of the AIDS epidemic in 1981, in-depth entries discuss each book's publication history, plot, and significance for the construct of gay identity along with a brief biography of its author. Including iconic works like Oscar Wilde's The Picture of Dorian Gray (1890) and E. M. Forster's Maurice as well as lesser-known but noteworthy novels such as Rose Macaulay's The Lee Shore (1912) and John Broderick's The Waking of Willie Ryan (1969), this volume, the first of its kind, enlarges our understanding of the development of gay fiction and provides an essential reading list.

The American Contractor, 1910 Close Up: Cinema And Modernism James Donald, Anne Friedberg, Laura Marcus, 1998-11-01 Between 1927 and 1933 the journal Close Up championed a European avant-garde in film making. This volume republishes articles from the journal with an introduction and a commentary on the lives of and complex relationships between its writers and editors.
