The Chief Rabbi, the Pope, and the Holocaust Wallace P. Sillanpaa, 2017-07-05 In February 1945 Israel Zolli chief rabbi of Rome's ancient Jewish community shocked his co religionists in Italy and throughout the Jewish world by converting to Catholicism and taking as his baptismal name Eugenio to honor Pope Pius XII Eugenio Pacelli for what Zolli saw as his great humanitarianism toward the Jews during the Holocaust Almost a half a century after his conversion Zolli still evokes anger and embarrassment in Italy's Jewish community This book is the first authoritative treatment of this astonishing story What induced Zolli to embrace Catholicism will probably never be known Nonetheless by painstaking scholarly detective work through interviews in Italy and elsewhere through the unearthing of private papers not previously known to exist and through the study of previously inaccessible archival materials the authors have succeeded in explaining why Zolli left the Jewish fold and joined the Catholic Church Like Zolli's rabbinical career Pius XII's long pontificate tells us much about the Church of Rome and its relationship to the Jewish people particularly with reference to the issue of conversion The authors focus on the pontiff's World War II policies vis à vis the Jews a subject that has been heatedly debated since Rolf Hochhuth's The Deputy was performed in the early 1960s What Pacelli knew about the extermination of the Jews and when he knew it what he said and failed to say are given special attention in this book Through the examination of previous scholarship and primary materials including Pius XI's encyclical on race and anti-Semitism Pacelli's behavior is evaluated to determine if Zolli accurately gauged the Holy Father's efforts to save Jews This saga of the two Eugenios will interest historians of the Second World War and the Holocaust and students of history alike The International Organization of Hunger Peter Uvin, 2022-09-09 First Published in 1993 this is part of the Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva series This study which looks at whether scholars of international politics attempt to understand cooperative behavior in the light of the theories developed by the observers of both conflict and of cooperation This volume expands the short list of such works and does so with insight a wide range of scholarship and a willingness to test particular cases against existing theory The author has written a book which expands the knowledge of but also a thoughtful improvement of existing theoretical approaches Uvin's universe of enquiry excludes military power and its application It concentrates on the long term complex organization of cooperative transnational behavior and its rationale Its focus is on functional issues involving world hunger a haunting background and result and perhaps even one cause of the dreadful violence that characterizes our world even as the threat of catastrophic nuclear warfare has declined The State of World Rural Poverty Idriss Jazairy, Mohiuddin Alamgir, Theresa Panuccio, 1992 Despite almost four decades and billions of dollars in development activities we are barely in a position to track the changing dynamics of poverty or to define with conviction the processes that entrap the poor in their misery Accounting for about 90% of global poverty rural poverty through transmigration is also a main contributor to urban poverty It is in the rural areas of the world where poverty is most severe in human terms where the hunger hopelessness hardship and despair commonly associated with entrenched poverty are most pronounced where basic health services sanitation educational opportunities and other common amenities are most lacking The alleviation of rural poverty is therefore tantamount to the alleviation of global poverty in its entirety The State of World Rural Poverty offers the first comprehensive look at the economic conditions and prospects of the world's rural poor
