Education in Schools Michael T. Buchanan,Adrian-Mario Gellel,2019-03-01 This book shares global perspectives on Catholic religious education in schools chiefly focusing on educational and curriculum issues that take into account the theology and the pedagogy which support learning in connection with Catholic religious education Further it offers insights into the distinctive contribution that Catholic religious education makes to religious education and education in general across diverse schooling contexts Bringing together insights from leading scholars and experts on Catholic religious education around the globe the book offers an essential reference guide for all those involved in researching planning and designing curricula for Catholic religious education as well as developing related theories in the field Dealing with Bioethical Issues in a Globalized World Joris Gielen,2020-01-09 This book addresses the complexity of talking about normativity in bioethics within the context of contemporary multicultural and multi religious society It offers original contributions by specialists in bioethics exploring new ways of understanding normativity in bioethics In bioethical publications and debates the concept of normativity is often used without consideration of the difficulties surrounding it whereas there are many competing claims for normativity within bioethics Examples of such competing normative bioethical discourses can be perceived in variations and differences in bioethical arguments within individual religions and the opposition between bioethical arguments from specific religions and arguments from bioethicists who do not claim religious allegiance We also cannot merely assume that a Western understanding of normative bioethics will be unproblematic in bioethics in non Western cultures and religions Through an analysis of normativity in Christian Hindu Buddhist Islamic and Jewish bioethics the book creates awareness of the complexity of normativity in bioethics The book also covers normative bioethics outside an explicitly religiously committed context and specific attention is paid to bioethics as an interdisciplinary endeavor It reveals how normativity relates to empirical and global bioethics which challenges it faces in bioethics in secular pluralistic society and how to overcome these By doing that this book fills an important gap in bioethics literature

Christian-Muslim Dialogue In Northern Nigeria Thaddeus Byimui Umaru,2013-08 Religion as a powerful impulse in human existence plays a paradoxical role in society as it both contributes significantly in shaping the spiritual socio political and economic lives of millions of people and also acts as a source of conflict The sad experience of interreligious conflict in Northern Nigeria challenges the claim of Islam and Christianity to be religions of peace However understood as closely intertwined with culture and custom of a people religion can be central in the establishment of peace and conflict resolution in and between communities This text using the model of dialogue Nostra Aetate explores and presents the socio political and
