Alternative Shakespeare Auditions for Women Simon Dunmore, 2013-10-08 Like the companion volume for men Alternative Shakespeare Auditions for Women brings together fifty speeches from plays frequently ignored such as Coriolanus, Pericles and Love's Labours Lost. It also features good but overlooked speeches from more popular plays such as Diana from All's Well That Ends Well, Perdita from The Winter's Tale and Hero from Much Ado About Nothing. Each speech is accompanied by a character description, brief explanation of the context and notes on obscure words, phrases and references, all written from the viewpoint of the auditioning actor. It is the perfect resource for your best audition ever. Multimodal Stylistics of the Novel Nina Nørgaard, 2018-10-08 This book advocates for a new analytical framework that extends our understanding of multimodal meaning making in the novel. Integrating theoretical traditions from stylistics and the influential social semiotic approach to multimodal communication developed by Kress and van Leeuwen, Nørgaard applies this method of analysis in order to build on existing stylistic practices that look at linguistic features in the novel to encompass other semiotic resources found in the form, such as typography, layout, images, paper and book cover design. The volume grounds the discussion with supporting examples from novels that feature experimentation with multiple semiotic resources as well as more traditional novels, furthering the argument that all novels are inherently multimodal. Offering new insights and tools for unpacking multimodal meaning making in this critical literary genre, this volume is an indispensable resource for graduate students and researchers in multimodality, stylistics and literary studies. survived Mia but her spirit died. After losing her baby, the people around her are starting to question if the baby is the only thing she's lost. Trying to pick up pieces after Mia is easier said than done. Aliyah is tired of picking Anje back up and the long lost Monroe is just trying to find herself. If it wasn't for bad luck, Anjel wouldn't have any. American Book Prices Current, 1916 A record of literary properties sold at auction in the United States. The Plays of William Shakespeare ... Loh, 2024-11-04 In these changing times of global flows of media and technologies and reports of declining reading enjoyment, researchers, policymakers and educators need to engage anew with essential issues of what counts as reading, what kinds of reading matter and how to support teen reading engagement in school and out of school settings. Bringing together contributions from well-known and emerging adolescent literacy researchers from different disciplinary perspectives, this edited collection consolidates contemporary research on teens' volitional print and digital reading, whether in school or out of school contexts. The first part of the book offers overviews of what teens are reading, followed by chapters on community support on reading and new ways of researching teen reading. With chapters from North America, Europe, Australia, Asia and the Middle East, the collection will offer multifaceted and complex insights into what, how and why teens read in different contexts Reflection questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to consider how the research can be applied in their own research policy and practice contexts This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers and educators who are invested in supporting adolescent engaged reading with evidence based policies and strategies
