early modern France Despite the current flourishing of critical attention to women poets works critical assessments of Renaissance temporality remain almost exclusively shaped by early modern male writers A reading uninformed by female poets has deprived us of a more multifaceted vision of the temporal concordia discors at work in all these poets In Carpe Corpus Cathy Yandell offers original interpretations of such literary giants as Ronsard and Louise Labe as well as lesser known but increasingly studied poets of the sixteenth century notably Anne de Marquets Nicole Estienne and Catherine des Roches Through readings of poetry conduct manuals and moral treatises this volume seeks to reconstruct the temporal landscape of early modern France
