to the top of the prizefighting world The Big Book of Pain Mark P Donnelly, Daniel Diehl, 2012-01-31 For millennia mankind has devised ingenious and diabolical means of inflicting pain on fellow human beings This deplorable but seemingly universal trait has eaten away at mankind's very claim to civilisation Despite how repugnant the practice of torture appears to us today for at least 3 000 years it formed part of most legal codes throughout Europe and the Far East The Big Book of Pain is an exploration of the systematic use throughout the ages of various means of punishment torture coercion and torment It takes the reader into the Ancient Roman Coliseum the medieval dungeon the Inquisitional interrogation the auto da fe the witch trial and the worst of prisons It is a shocking and compelling study of the shameful methods and motives of the torturer and the executioner and of the heinous duty they have performed through the ages Madams Fergus Linnane, 2011-10-24 At a time when there were almost no career openings for women a group of intrepid and gifted females scaled the heights of what was literally a man's world they became bawds Mother Clap women bawds were often known as Mother ran male brothels or Molly Houses Elizabeth Holland had an immense moated mansion built on Bankside and for thirty years entertained the aristocracy including royalty When troops attempted to stop her trade and eject her from the house she and her girls drove them off The Georgian bawd Charlotte Hayes held a Cyprian Fete at which gentlemen of the highest breeding first watched athletic young men copulating with nubile whores and then joined in themselves Fergus Linnane reveals the other side of London's years of pomp and splendour painting a vivid picture of the bawds their girls and their clients Madams is fresh and original offering humour insight and a very candid view of the sexual behaviour of Londoners through the ages Library Book Catalog National Institute of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice. Office of Technology Transfer, 1972 Landscapes of Fear Yi-Fu Tuan, 2013-01-02 To be human is to experience fear but what is it exactly that makes us fearful Here is one geographer's striking exploration of our landscapes of fear as they change throughout our lives and have changed throughout history Yi fu Tuan investigates landscapes of the natural environment which are threatening and landscapes filled with the dark imageries of the mind fears of drought flood famine and disease shared by all members of a community and fears of the particular ghosts which haunt the individual imagination In this lucidly written ground breaking survey Professor Tuan delves into many cultures and reaches back into our prehistory to discover what is universal and what is particular in our inheritance of fear Starting with fear in animals he raises and explores a variety of questions What is specifically human about fear Is there or has there ever been a fearless society Professor Tuan examines the most specific forms fear takes in the mind of the child among hunters and agriculturists inside the walls of a medieval Chinese city among Navaho Indians and American immigrants He explores the ways in which authorities create landscapes of terror to instill fear in their own populations and he probes that most basic of all contradictions between the need for human security and the fear of human nature Professor Tuan particularly emphasizes how in coping with fears of enemies strangers the insane wolves wind witches mountains dragons rain or the terror that the universe itself might crumble humans respond adventurously by creating shelters ranging from fairy tales to cosmological myths We watch as human beings continually draw and redraw their circles of safety never feeling entirely at peace within them Punishment And Culture María José Falcón y Tella, Fernando Falcón y Tella, 2006 This volume critically explores the basis and the goal of punishment from the standpoint of the right to punish The work reviews the main doctrines that have dealt with the theme of punishment from Antiquity to the present not limiting itself to the legal philosophical sphere but also analyzing the contributions from other social sciences It then explores how these are reflected in the sphere of Positive Law
