Sign My Name to Freedom Betty Reid Soskin, 2018-02-06 In Betty Reid Soskin s 96 years of living she has been a witness to a grand sweep of American history When she was born in 1921 the lynching of African Americans was a national epidemic blackface minstrel shows were the most popular American form of entertainment white women had only just won the right to vote and most African Americans in the Deep South could not vote at all From her great grandmother who had been enslaved until her mid 20s Betty heard stories of slavery and the times of terror and struggle for black folk that followed In her lifetime Betty has watched the nation begin to confront its race and gender biases when forced to come together in the World War II era seen our differences nearly break us apart again in the upheavals of the civil rights and Black Power eras and finally lived long enough to witness both the election of an African American president and the re emergence of a militant racist far right The child of proud Louisiana Creole parents who refused to bow down to Southern discrimination Betty was raised in the Bay Area black community before the great westward migration of World War II After working in the civilian home front effort in the war years she and her husband Mel Reid helped break down racial boundaries by moving into a previously all white community east of the Oakland hills where they raised four children while resisting the prejudices against the family that many of her neighbors held With Mel she opened up one of the first Bay Area record stores in Berkeley both owned by African Americans and dedicated to the distribution of African American music Her volunteer work in rehabilitating the community where the record shop began eventually led her to a paid position as a state legislative aide helping to plan the innovative Rosie the Riveter WWII Home Front National Historical Park in Richmond California then to a second career as the oldest park ranger in the history of the National Park Service In between she used her talents as a singer and songwriter to interpret and chronicle the great American social upheavals that marked the 1960s In 2003 Betty displayed a new talent when she created the popular blog CBreaux Speaks sharing the sometimes fierce sometimes gently persuasive but always brightly honest story of her long journey through an American and African American life Blending together selections from many of Betty s hundreds of blog entries with interviews letters and speeches Sign My Name to Freedom invites you along on that journey through the words and thoughts of a national treasure who has never stopped looking at herself the nation or the world with fresh eyes

Struggle for Black Freedom in Miami Abigail Cloud, 2014-04-07 In her first collection of poems Abigail Cloud draws inspiration from nineteenth century European Romantic ballets which often portrayed scorned females as mystical spirits such as sylphs shades and wilis Some of these creatures seduced men into dancing until they died punishment for inconstancy or lured them into love For Cloud the dark gravity that holds these enchanters to the earth is the same as our own and thus these demons are as everyday as air Sylph filters our world through the lenses of dance folklore and history revealing our contemporary lives to be dreamlike and prismatic In the blink the mouse spent to disappear I loved you avows the sylph The cost of her ascension and ours is steep our price speech our forgetting breath Such are the stakes in this complex seductive and stunning debut
