Seven Points Of Mind Training:

The Seven Points of Mind Training Rinpoche Thrangu, Zhyisil Chokyi Ghatsal Trust, 2006-05-01 The Seven Points of Mind Training Rinpoche Thrangu, 2002 This Text On Mind Training Called Lo Jong In Tibetan Was Brought To Tibet By Atisha In The Eleventh Century An Extensive Commentary on the Seven Point Mind Training Lobsang Gyatso, 2017-01-01

The mind training tradition that developed in Tibet has its source from the great Indian masters Nagarjuna and Shantideva and it was brought into Tibet by Atisha in the eleventh century The practice of Mind training is based on the essential Mahayana teachings of impermanence compassion and the exchange of self and other The lojong teachings are a source of inspiration and guidance shared by masters of all Tibetan traditions The Seven Point Mind Training is a popular Tibetan Buddhist text by a twelfth century Kadampa master Geshe Chekawa An Extensive Commentary on the Seven Point Mind Training is a commentary on The Seven Point Mind Training by Geshe Lobsang Gyatsho In this book he explains the practice of Mind Training as the synthesis of all the various trainings of Mahayana Buddhism into one practice with nothing omitted whatsoever He constantly emphasizes the daily practice of the Mind Training teachings over mere study or memorization and enjoins us to place whatever intellectual understanding we may have into pure Dharma practice right now Since the root text used here comprises pithy statements handed down by the great Kadampa masters of Tibet that require further elucidation Gen Lobsang Gyatso explains them with the expertise of an individual who has lived these teachings for many years and has come to a personal experiential mastery of them He espouses them as the fundamental antidote to our samsaric suffering and afflictive emotions the adamant antidote that crushes our own worst enemy our self centered attitude Among many text on Mind Training Geshe Chekawa's Seven Points for Training the Mind is widely used Chekhawa was said to possess all the marks of a great being right from his birth He received the Milarepa instructions from Rechungpa and had many other great teachers like Geshe Tsan Jayulpa and so forth It is said that he had memorized over one hundred scriptures but always felt incomplete thinking that there must be some other teaching for achieving enlightenment Then at thirty he met the great teacher Sharawa who gave him experiential teaching for twelve years Geshe Chekhawa was very satisfied as we see at the end of his text on the Seven Points of Mind Training where he says Now I have no regrets even if I die Sharawa gave this practice of exchanging oneself for the other as a secret teaching to Chekhawa Thus the special focus of this text is how to eliminate self cherishing attitudes which are the source of all the sufferings and problems that we face in our life Lojong Mind Training in Seven Points , The Seven-point Mind Training B. Alan Wallace, 2004 In this society with its hurly burly pace demanding of our time it is ever so easy to let life slip by The process of simply existing is not necessarily meaningful And yet there is an unlimited potential for meaning and value in this human existence The Seven Point Mind Training is one eminently practical way of tapping into that meaning The central theme of the Seven Point Mind Training is to make the liberating passage from the constricting solitude of self centeredness to the warm kinship with others which occurs with the cultivation of cherishing others even more than oneself This mind training technique is especially well suited for an active life It does not require that we withdraw into seclusion but that we re examine all of our relationships to family friends enemies and strangers and gradually transform our responses to whatever life throws our way Book jacket

Mind and Chekawa's Seven Point Mind Training together with the earliest commentaries on these seminal texts. An accurate and lyrical translation of these texts, many of which are in metered verse, marks an important contribution to the world's literary heritage, enriching its spiritual resources. Essential Mind Training Thupten Jinpa, 2011-11-22. Tibetans revere the mind training lojong tradition for its practical and down-to-earth advice. The key to happiness is not a life free of problems but rather the development of a mind capable of transforming any problem or situation into a cause of happiness. Translated and introduced by the Dalai Lama's own translator, Thupten Jinpa, Essential Mind Training contains eighteen individual works, including such renowned classics as Eight Verses on Mind Training and The Seven Point Mind Training. The Benevolent Mind Traleg Kyabgon, 2003. Tilopa's Mahamudra Upadesha Sangyes Nyenpa Rinpoche, 2014-04-15. All lineages of Mahamudra meditation have their source in a verse teaching a song of realization sung by the Mahasiddha Tilopa to his disciple Naropa on the banks of the Ganges River more than a thousand years ago. Since that time, the meaning of Tilopa's instructions has been passed directly from master to disciple in a continuous stream that exists unbroken to this day. This book offers the reader a rare glimpse into the Mahamudra oral transmission given in a traditional Tibetan context by one of the lineage's most learned and accomplished contemporary masters. Mahamudra meditation, while highly advanced, is yet simple, practical, and accessible for anyone because what is identified and meditated upon is the very nature of one's own mind. In Sangyes Nyenpa Rinpoche's words: The distinction between deception and liberation lies in whether we understand the ever-present nature of our own mind or not. Knowing our own face is liberation; not knowing our own face is samsara. This is not something far distant from us. The instructions are ideal for Westerners because the root text is manageable, and Rinpoche has provided an outline of his own composition that makes it easily understandable. He explains terminology with frequent comparisons between Dzogchen and Mahamudra, quotes prolifically from scripture, gives clear examples, and generally cajoles, admonishes, and encourages his listeners to be true to their own spiritual path.
